THE LORD'S PRAYER

ONZE VADER, Die in den hemal zijt,

Uw naam worde geheiligd!

Uw koningrijk kome!

Uw wil geschiede gelijk in den hemel zoo ook op aarde!

Geef ons heden ons daaglijksch brood!

En vergeef ons onze schulden gelijk ook wij ver-geven onzen schuldenaren!

En leid ons niet in verzoeking, maar verlos ons vara den booze!

Want Uw is het koningrijk, en de kracht, en de heerlijkheid tot in eeuwigheid.

Amen.

1. Myn Godt voed my als myn Herder gepresen;
Dies sal ik geen es dings behoeflik wesen.
In't groene gras sceliestik hy my weydet:
En aen dat soet water hy my geleydet:
Hy verquickt myn ziel, die seer is verslegen;
Om syns naems wil leyt hy my syn wegen.
2. Alwaer't schoon dat ick in't dal des doots ginge,
En dat my des doots schaduwe omvinge,
Ik vrees niet, gy zyt by my gestsdig,
En gy troost my met uwen staf genadigh.
Gy maeckt ryk met goede seer velerhanden
Myn tafel voor d'oogen myner vyanden.
3. Gy salst myn hooft met rickend 'oly goedigh,
En schenkt my den beker vol overloedigh,
Gy suit doen dat uwe gunst, O Heer krachtigh,
Myn leven langh by my steedsvlyft eendrachtig;
Soo dat ick hoop eeuwiglick vast te woonen
In Godes Huys, 't welk niet is om verschoonen.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

P R E F A C E

The humble and the great of our ancestors are well represented in the succeeding pages. The work of compiling this history has been a labor of love and of unending interest; elation at finding each new nugget of data leading from present generations back to the days of the Revolution and farther; joy at finding the one missing link that connected a long family line with but one generation missing.

Would that I could thank by name each one who has helped to make this genealogy as complete as it is, for almost everyone has aided; but to name them would require another volume of its own. This situation being as it is I hereby tender to one and all my sincerest thanks and gratitude. My greatest regret is that so many of our name have absolutely failed to heed my repeated letters of request and questionnaires, which has resulted in greatly curtailing some lines of the family. In numerous lines the name of QUICK has entirely disappeared, leaving only the descendants of our daughters. In these we have carried them out as far as practicable, in "set-backs" on the same pages as their mothers, using letters as usual to indicate the generation—"lower-case" letters, not capitals. In studying the effects of trying to trace lines in many other genealogies, where the "set-back" method is used entirely we have found it so confusing that the searcher grows discouraged, hence we have used it only in reference to the offspring of our daughters, while all persons bearing the name of Quick follow in numerical order—each person's name being preceded by his identifying number and his generation letter in capitals.

Consequently, the book has been divided into eleven chapters, representing the eleven generations that we boast of—A to K. Some branches have been a little more progressive than others and have run into the twelfth generation, but we have held them back in "set-backs." Next, you will want to know how to locate the parent of any person, so we have placed after his name the generation letter and number of his parent, in parenthesis. Thus, "H-326 John Doe Quick (G-124)" shows that John's father's number is G-124, and by turning back to the "G" chapter his parent's name is readily found. Next, you will wish to locate John's children, so, at the end of the paragraph devoted to John's data you will find in brackets the numbers of John's children, to which one can readily turn; thus, [I-834]. (This system is original, so far as the writer knows, and is not patented.)

Next, a plus sign (+) preceding a name indicates that that person left offspring that is included in this book. Now, let's all get busy on any missing or incomplete lines. Send me the data and when enough is accumulated to make it worthwhile it will be printed as a "P. S.," in booklet form.

INTRODUCTION

There were three distinct groups of colonists arriving in the New World before 1700. First came the English to Boston and vicinity; second, the Dutch and English to New Amsterdam (New York); third, the English to Virginia. Of the latter we have little, if any, records of value. Even history is vague as to the movements and conditions in James Town, which was peopled long before the Pilgrims landed in New England. The tide of migration from Massachusetts was northward and westward. From Connecticut they crossed over into Long Island, New Jersey and New York State, with settlements all the way from Westchester to Albany, and many intermarried with the sons and daughters of the Dutch settlers. While New York remained in possession of the Dutch it was called New Netherlands and governed by a Schout, Burgomasters and Schepens. From its surrender to the English in 1664 and up to the year 1683 the province was ruled by Governors appointed and commissioned by the Duke of York.

In a building (still standing in 1930), at 25 Haarlemmer Straat, New York, was the Headquarters of the Dutch West Indies Company. In this building was drawn the letter of November 5, 1626, by which the States General of Holland was notified of the purchase of the Island of Manhattan from the Indians for 60 guilders ($24.) When Peter Minuet bought the Island from the Canarsie Indians, who then occupied the land around the Collect Pond, where the Criminal Courts building now stands, he believed he had purchased the entire island. Immediately the Dutch began to take possession of the northern part of Manhattan which brought them into conflict with other Indian tribes who knew nothing of the sale. Trouble followed and resulted in the Indian War of 1640-43.

Prices of New York lots have since risen. In 1657 the average price of the best city lots was $50., and the rent of an average good house was $14. a year. (Valentine's Manual, 1924:49).

In order to get a view of the domestic life and home comforts of the villagers on Manhattan Island and Harlem, up the Hudson and over in New Jersey, let us visit the home of one of the well-to-do and worthy. We enter. No carpet hides the well-scrubbed floor, and in vain we glance around the room for many articles which in a later day seem to demand for comfort. The furniture seems to go but little beyond the practical and useful. Indeed a gilded mirror adorns the whitewashed wall. The two beds have pillows, and striped curtains. Two convenient chests contain the clothing, one of the wife, the other of the fair daughter. On one side is a small octagon table, and here a brass candlestick and a warming pan. Upon hooks on the wall hang a musket and firelock. No stove

Other farming implements are at hand: two ox-yokes, two iron plough-rings, two wood axes, three iron wedges and a maul, two hand saws and a draw saw, two iron-bound buckets besides the two moss-covered buckets that hang in the well, depending from the heavy well-sweep. Also an iron lamp, and several tin lanterns, the sides and doors of which are perforated with numerous holes made in various designs to emit faint light from the candles within.

Here stands the ox-cart and two new cart wheels, also the plough with its wooden mouldboard and hand-wrought iron share and coulter. And back of the barn, sheltered in winter from the winds, stand seven hives with the bees swarming in and out gathering sweets to go with those delicious buckwheat cakes come winter, for the good schout (sheriff) and his family.

An air of hospitality pervades the entire premises, even to the old well with its mossy buckets and the watering-trough beside it, conveniently before the house, inviting the gentle kine or the wayfarer to stop and slake his thirst. The houses have begun to be constructed with more regard to permanence, and of more ample dimensions than formerly, though mainly of one full story and an ample "garret" above for storage and for the kinder. The low ceilings in the immense kitchen expose the heavy hand-hewn oaken beams that support the garret floor of extra thick, twelve to twenty-inch-wide pine or white-wood boards sawed at the mill from immense logs of virgin forest growth. The houses, often of stone, frequently have the walls of the lower rooms wainscoted, either plain or in panels, and up the broad stairway with its oaken balustrade to the garret.

The outer doors, invariably swung upon heavy, hand-forged strap hinges, are divided in halves horizontally — Dutch doors. The window panes are small — never over 7 by 9 inches, and for protection and to exclude the cold on the long winter nights the windows are covered with hinged shutters. The inner doors, of boards of varying widths, display the craftsmanship of the blacksmith with their H and L hinges and the thumb-latches. The fireplace, often ten feet wide, with a massive stone above it twelve feet long, opens wide and flaring to catch the sparks and smoke, and forms a convenient place in which, at the proper season, to hang up hams, sausage and beef to cure and smoke, and the glow from the roaring fire makes the place more homey as the master sits there with his long-stemmed pipe and his family around him.

At one side of the fireplace, set in the wide side pilaster, is an iron door about 18 inches square. Opening it a tunnel is seen running back through the wall of the fireplace into a large roomy Dutch oven, which is back of the fireplace — really outdoors, with a dome-shaped roof of brick, protected by a wooden shed roof. Inside the oven floor is of brick. Once or twice a week the good haus vrouw has her "bake-day." A good wood fire is built far back in this oven and kept burning briskly until the surrounding bricks are heated to the right temperature for baking. Then the fire is withdrawn and the loaves, pies and cakes are shoved back into the oven on a long-handled paddle. When properly "done" the baked goods are withdrawn by slipping the paddle under the tins and drawing them out. Meats and poultry are also roasted in this way.

The farmer burned his own lime, tanned his own leather, often made his own shoes and boots for the family, while the good wife spun and wove her own wool and flax for the family garments, made her own soap and candles, and various other articles. In fact, they were quite all-sufficient unto themselves. Primitive were their farming methods. It was not the era of iron ploughs, horse-rakes and reapers. Even the cradle for cutting grain was unknown. Instead the scythe was used for mowing grass, and grain was cut with either sickle or with scythe and hook — a short blade attached to the snath, while at the other end a loop like that of a shovel handle. The hook was made of a slender wooden stock about three feet long, from the end of which ran out at a right angle a small iron prong eight inches long. The hook, pressed against the standing grain, served to hold it in place, while it was cut with a swing of the scythe held in the other hand. The cut grain was thus left leaning against that still uncut until the reaper or his helper gathered it and bound it in sheaves.

The children were brought up to those habits of industry which the parents themselves had found so profitable. Regardless of their position in life the sons were almost invariably put out to learn a trade — carpenter, mason, bolter, cordwainer (shoemaker), baker, weaver, blacksmith, etc. And every daughter was well taught in all household duties. The spinning wheel was brought out and put in motion as soon as wool and flax could be prepared in the fall, and so each family made its own "home-spun" cloth, white or dyed with permanent colors that these old folks well knew how to make. A girl was considered but a poor candidate for matrimony unless she could show her stores of linens and other articles of her industry. And goods made in those days were made to last. It happens that the writer has in his possession woolen blankets, made well on towards two centuries ago in one of these homes of his Dutch ancestors, that bear the initials of the young Dutch girl who wove them; and they are still in serviceable condition. Would that I could compliment her.

Broom and scrubbing brush, periodical whitewashing, kept everything "spick and span." The bare floors were as scrupulously clean as the bare table on which they ate their meals. After scrubbing they were sprinkled with white beach sand brought from the oceanside in cart-loads, and swept in waves or other figures by drawing the broom lightly over them — a sample of the general tidiness that ruled all households.

Their pride was of a kind that was no bar to pleasure, if their only coach was an oxcart or on horseback, or their clothing of homemade "linsey-woolsey," they were quite as content as if clothed in finest silks, riding in a "coach and four."

Money was scarce in those days. Farm products could be exchanged for merchandise or groceries at the few stores in the settlements. And if cash was needed, one could get 25 cents a hundred for mauling and splitting rails, and one could finish up a hundred a day. A sugar camp could be worked on almost every farm, and bee trees could be located every season. Berries and wild fruits and nuts were plentiful. The hogs fattened on nuts and acorns.

A big spinning wheel for spinning yarn to make winter clothes, from jeans for the men and boys, and linsey-woolsey for the women and girls, with the little wheel for spinning flax for making linen clothes and sheets and towels, and a loom for weaving cloth could be found on every farm, so living was easy and rather romantic. Hunting, fishing and nutting were not only amusements but kept the larder well supplied. Wild turkeys, pheasants, quails, deer and squirrels were plentiful. Trapping was in vogue, and the sides of the cabins were decorated with beaver, coon and mink skins, and the walls inside the rafters were strung with dried pumpkins and apples.

Oiled paper answered for windows; a pail of water for a mirror, in many homes of our forefathers, while pine knots often took the place of candles when the tallow supply ran low. Trencher and wooden bowls preceded chinaware; burnt crusts or browned flour well took the place of coffee; the leaves of the New Jersey Tea and the Agrimony shrubs supplied an agreeable substitute for tea, and legendary tales are current in hundreds of early families of the important part these substitutes played during the days of the "Boston Tea Party." The musical whir of the spinning wheels and the loom, with the gay voices of the family raised in song provided music that was enjoyed quite as much as do we who are flooded with the varied music of the present day.

Can you imagine what the thousands of marriages of those days meant to the future of the Republic? From those united husbands and wives were to come descendants numbering many millions of Americans. And then imagine the domestic conditions under which these marriages were consummated. Marriage was then a sacred, religious ceremony, with the thought of divorce as far away as the mirage on the desert. With the constant danger from hostile savages these thousands of marriages were celebrated with the Bible and the musket in close proximity. The light shed at evening nuptials was the blaze of the tallow dip. The wedding feast was the meat of the deer or the wild turkey, and a pudding of maize. The bridegroom in knee breeches and jacket of home-spun; the bride in linsey-woolsey. These were the simple God-fearing days of the sacred marriage bond.

Picture the humble daily life and habitat of these thousands of Colonial pioneers — these first white Americans — the forefathers of this great Republic. We should not alone idolize the fighting heroes of 1776 who made way for Liberty. We should equally reverence these sturdy, brave emigrants of the Colonial period who brought to these shores the true Protestant Christian Spirit of manhood and womanhood, which alone made possible the Revolution of 1776. In cabins of rough hewn timber they lived and worshiped the God of their fathers. We almost hear the crackling of the logs on their hearthstones, the whistling of the blizzard, the fervent words of morning and evening prayer, the nightly reading from the Book of Books; and again at early dawn the echoes of the axe and gun. After 300 years can you not sense the flavor of the smoking venison and the browning loaf? And the bubbling of the kettle in the brilliant glow of the fireplace, and the soft metallic voice of the family pewter? The affection of the parents and the thoughtful children, lending helpful hands to ease the burdens of their elders? This was the Alpha of the real America.

EARLY RECORDS IN HOLLAND

Relative to the progenitor of the Quick family the following has been found in the archives at Naarden, Netherlands, by our researcher, through the intermediary of Mr. William J. Hoffman of New York:

Baptismal Register (Inv. 418 a)

 { Beel Jacobs

No other baptismal records were found. The baptismal registers of Naarden start in 1613, too late to contain the entry of Teunis' birth. The following data relative to other persons bearing the name of Quick was found at Naarden:

I—Willem Quick lived in the second half of the 16th century at Naarden.

II—Gerrit Willemsz, Quick. He was in 1601 and 1602 a schepen of Naarden when he is mentioned as such in the schepen registers of Naarden (22 July 1601; fol. 234, and 20 Jan. 1602; fol. 255). In both instances he made the statement that he had no seal (no coat-of-arms), and requested one of the other schepens to seal for him. He married Aethgen Boutendr, for under date of Sept. 25, 1604 (fol. 69) the Schepen Registers of Naarden contain the following entry:

Appeared Willem Lamberts and Peter Jansz, appointed by the City Council of Naarden as "sequester mijsters," curators, of the insolvent estate (desolate boule) of the late Anthonys and Claesgen Anthonisdr, who transferred to Aethgen Boutensdr, widow of the late Gerrit Willemsz Quick, a house and lot situated in the "Gasthuysstraet," between Jan Everts and Jan Gysberts Schuydt. Gerrit Willemsz Quick was the owner of property in the same street, for on Jan. 5, 1600, he is mentioned (Schepen register, fol. 204 vo), as the owner of an adjoining property in a deed. A deed had been registered on Dec. 26, 1605 (fol. 97) whereby Jan Hermans Gracht conveys a parcel of land to Aethgen Bouten. Aethgen Bouten's surname was in all probability Tholl, for on Jan. 25, 1600 (Schepen Register, fol. 189) d'eersame (the honorable) Boudt Jacobs Tholl and Gerrit Willems Quick buy a parcel of land together. Boudt (Boudewijn - Bowdoin) Jacobs Tholl was a schepen of Naarden in 1598 and in 1599. He is mentioned as such in the schepen registers of Naarden of these years. In 1599 he buys on Jan. 9, a house in the Gasthuysstraet at Naarden (fol. 162). There was in 1626 a Jan Claessen Tholl schepen of Naarden. The son of Gerrit Williams Quick was:

III—WILLEM GERRITS QUICK. He married, Naarden, March 5, 1623, Adriaentgen Pietersdr, j.d. from Amersfoort. He was the owner of a house in the Gansoortstraat at Naarden on Jan. 29, 1627 (schepen register). Their two children were:

IV—a—Gerrit Willems Quick, mar. (marriage register 1637-1655 is missing), Jannetje Hendricksdr.

Children:—a—Bout, bapt. Naarden Dec. 18, 1645.

b—Hendrick, bapt. Naarden Nov. 6, 1648.

c—Pieter, bapt. Naarden Aug. 7, 1650.

IV—b—Johannes Willems Quick, j.m. from Naarden, mar. Naarden, 4 Apr. 1675, Dirckje Cornelis, j.d. from Barneveldt.

Children:—a—Cornelis, bapt. Naarden June 2, 1675.

b—Jannetje, bapt. Naarden July 28, 1677.

No trace of either an Anthony or a Thomas Quick has been found. Naarden was a fortress, and since the latter half of the 16th century, a regiment of Scotch soldiers was in garrison there. It belonged to the expeditionary force sent by Queen Elizabeth to help the United Provinces in their war with Spain.

It seems that Quick is also a Scotch name. It is decidedly not Dutch. Mr. John Quick was a minister in the Scotch-Presbyterian Church at Bridge's Street, Covert Garden, London. From there, he was called in 1681 to the Scotch church at Middelburg, Netherlands, to remain there only until April 27th of that year, when he returned to England. (Biog. Dict. van der Aa).

In this connection it is of interest to note that on Nov. 14, 1616, at Naarden, the marriage took place of Willem Willems, jonges (el), i.e., Bachelor, from Scotland, with Geertgen Jacobus Vleckesteyn, j.d. from Naarden. This bride was undoubtedly a sister of the wife of Teunis Thomaszen (Quick).

Jacques (Jacobus) Vleckesteyn is mentioned in the schepen registers on June 13, 1608 (fol. 269 vo.) May 1, 1612 (fol. 269) and May 18, 1612 (fol. 269 vo.) in connection with a declaration of indebtedness and two deeds.

It is to be noted that the son Jacob of the American progenitor is also known by the name "de Looper." This means literally translated, "the walker." But an interesting find was the marriage at Naarden on Feb. 22, 1604, of Thomas Truloper and Willemtgen Claes. The similarity of Trolloper and deLoper, especially for one speaking Dutch, is remarkable. And again, Trullover may easily be a Dutch version of the name Trollope, which one finds in England. It may be that there was a possible connection between the Trullover and Quick families, especially in view of the fact that the name Thomas appears in both. It was quite customary in those early days in the Netherlands to give some of the children the mother's name, or even the grandmother's. It is remarkable that no Quicks have been found there with the names Thomas or Anthony (Teunis). All this is a mere conjecture which only a further search might prove or disprove. It seems fair to assume that the Quick family belongs to the early Scotch settlement at Naarden, mainly descendants of the soldiers of the Scotch troops in garrison there.

All available source material has not been consulted, the money available at the time was not sufficient for such an exhaustive search, as you will readily understand. A search in these original records, very poorly indexed or not indexed at all, takes considerable time. However, a great deal has already been done and it has disclosed some very interesting data.

The following historical sketch may furnish some clue as to how the Quicks may have gotten into Holland, and how Philip II of Spain fought the Dutch because they did not wish to be Catholics; and how the English came to the aid of the Dutch:

Philip II was one of the strongest rulers in Europe. He had the Netherlands, Spain, which included Portugal after 1581, part of Italy and the Spanish colonies in America. A great part of Philip's subjects in the Netherlands were Protestants, but whether Protestants or Catholics they did not think he should persecute and put to death those who wished to worship in their own way. They also thought they should have the right to do a part of the governing themselves. They were also angered because of heavy taxes. Because the leading men of the country protested, Philip thought they were disloyal. He decided to make these obstinate subjects obey. He sent an army of Spanish soldiers, the best troops in Europe, to the Netherlands under command of the Duke of Alva — a stern, harsh man. Spanish soldiers were put in towns as garrisons. The duke set up a court, the "Council of Blood," people called it, to try disobedient subjects of the king. Hundreds were arbitrarily condemned and put to death, but this military government only made the people of the Netherlands dislike Philip more than ever. Some of them, who were nicknamed "Beggars", organized themselves to resist his tyrannical rule.

The leader of the rebellion was WILLIAM of ORANGE, a great statesman, who raised armies and fought the Spanish troops. Although usually beaten, he persisted. The people of two provinces of the Netherlands, Holland and Zealand, many of whom were fishermen, took to the sea as privateers, and did much damage to the ocean commerce of the Spanish. Indignation caused by Spanish plundering of cities and towns finally united all seventeen provinces of the Netherlands, and by a compact made in 1576, known as the Pacification of Ghent, they agreed to fight together for freedom, religious tolerance, and for their former political rights. However, an able governor, the Duke of Parma, persuaded the ten southern provinces, mostly Catholic, to remain loyal to Philip. But the people of the seven northern provinces, mostly Protestants, and comprising what is now called Holland, united in a confederation called the "Union of Utrecht" in 1579. They chose William of Orange as their stadtholder president, and issued a Declaration of Independence which included many things that were incorporated 200 years later in our own "Declaration of Independence," an historic document that some of the descendants of those sturdy Hollanders helped to frame.

They tried to get assistance from other Protestant countries, with little success, but relief came in an unexpected way. English sea captains had long been annoying Philip by making raids on his colonies and treasure ships. Queen Elizabeth winked at these violations of neutrality, and she even sent troops from England and Scotland to help the Dutch in their struggle against Spanish tyranny, and many of these were stationed in Dutch towns as garrisons, the town of Naarden, the birthplace and home of the founder of our Quick family in America, being one of them so protected.

These events angered Philip and he decided to make war on England. In 1588 the "Invincible Armada," a great Spanish fleet of large vessels with many fine Spanish soldiers on board, set sail for England, intending to first go to the Netherlands to pick up additional troops for the invasion of England. But the English sea captains discovered their plans. The English ships were smaller, less clumsy, and had better cannon than the Spanish. They attacked ships on the edge of the Armada, shot them so full of holes that they sank many of them. By the time the Spaniards had reached the North Sea, they were so demoralized by this smashing victory of the English, that they did not go to Holland at all, but sailed northward around the British Isles and back to Spain. Only fifty of the original hundred and thirty ships made the home ports. The others, battered to pieces by English cannon, or sunk by them, had gone down in a violent storm.

The defeat of the "Invincible Armada" so encouraged the Dutch that under Maurice, son of William of Orange, they won many victories on land against the Spaniards, Philip II died in 1598, and Spain gave up the struggle with the Dutch. Although Holland did not receive recognition of its independence from Spain until 1648, the Dutch were actually a free people before the 16th century ended.

Our research correspondent in Naarden, finding no record of any others by the name of Quick, quite naturally assumes that among the British garrison there may have been a soldier by the name of Quick—there being families of that name in Scotland—and that this fellow so liked the country and one of its fair maidens that he decided to make Naarden his permanent home, and said maiden his haus vrouw. This man was probably the grandfather or father of our Teunis Thomaszen.

The father of our Theunis was certainly named Thomas, for it was a general custom in Holland to use the father's given name as the middle name of all his children, male and female, the family name in many instances being omitted entirely, sometimes even lost sight of. This custom also prevailed in America for many generations among many of the Dutch families. There being no "Q" in the Dutch alphabet our name for years was variously spelled in church and other records—Kwik, Cuyck, Cuik, Cuick, Kuik, Kuyk, etc., in fact in early records all names were spelled phonetically.

HALF TITLE

"A"—FIRST GENERATION

+ A 1 THEUNIS THOMASZEN QUICK and BELIJTGEN JACOBUS, beyde jong, (both single), were married tot Naarden, Holland, 9 Marty (March), 1625. Our research in the early records at Naarden shows this marriage. Theunis Thomaszen Quick de Matzelaer van Naarden, as he sometimes signed his name, meaning the mason from Naarden, was first heard of in the early records at Nieuw Amsterdam, (New York), when, with his wife, Belitje, they had their daughter Hillegonde baptized in the New Amsterdam Dutch Church 25 November, 1640. The van Naarden refers to his home town in Holland. Naarden is located on the south shore of the Zuider Zee, some fifteen miles east of Amsterdam. We have the baptismal records of all their children except Jacob, presumably born in Holland. Weyntje, the oldest, was baptized at Naarden den 23 July 1628. It is believed that they came to America not long after the birth of Weyntje, though the exact time is not known.

The present day aeroplane photograph of Naarden would suggest that the town has not changed greatly since 1625—not nearly as much as the village they emigrated to. The star-shaped plan of the town, surrounded by the canal, with causeways across it at intervals for the convenience of the farmers to reach their farms outside the town, mutely tells the tale of the old feudal days. The star-shaped ancient fortifications surrounded the moat.

In proof of the fact that our first ancestor in America took a few fliers in down-town real estate in the heart of what has since become the center of the financial and business district of New York City, we submit the following transactions gleaned from Stoke's "Iconography of Manhattan Island," a ponderous work in several volumes that sold for around $500. when published many years ago:

In the Castello Plan—Block D—No. 1—

In 1654 one Frederick Arentsen, a turner, had bought a lot from Teunis Tomassen, the mason (Liber Deeds, A:148) who agreed to take part of the price in chairs. Arentsen insisted on having the lot "delivered to him at 13 inches to the foot," which Teunis and his wife, Belitje Jacobs, disputed.—(Rec. N. Amer., II:327, 338, III:3 12).

From Vol. 2:248—

No. 3—"Where Teunis Quick lives," is the entry in the DeSille List, of 1660. Theunis Tomassen, a mason from Naarden, Province of N. Holland, is often referred to in early records as Teunis Quick—a surname held by his descendents at the present time.—(Records N. Am. II:428 et seq).

From Vol. 2:248—

Teunis Tomassen from Naarden was in Nieuw Amsterdam as early as 1640 (Col. Hist. Mss., Dutch:14) and was established on this site (Lot No. 3) by 1645.—(Liber G. G.:107, Albany). By February 1659 he had built his "new" house (so called in Mortgages. 1654-1660) and seems to have torn down his first house, of which the Plan shows no trace. His new house really stood on the lot next south. Teunis sold his house to his son-in-law, Jacob Teunissen deKay, the baker.—(Liber Deeds, B:21 of Deeds and Conveyances, 1659-1664). This property remained in the deKay family until 1771.

20 April 1667. Conf.—Gov. Nicolls to Jacob Teunis Kay. (Patents, Albany, II:16). Recites ground brief Kieft to Teunis Tomassen van Naarden, 4 July 1645; that the right, title and interest therein were transported by T. T. van Naarden to Jacob Teunis Kay 22 Aug. 1663. (Then gives description, etc.: North side of Fort, etc.).

Among early settlers on Whitehall Street in 1645, Theunis Thomassen Van Naarden was granted a lot on the present south-east corner of Whitehall and Marketfield Streets, having a front on Whitehall St. of about 100 feet, and depth on Marketfield Street of about 70 feet.* (Valentine's Hist. N.Y.). This is the site of the present Produce Exchange Building in N. Y. City, on the N.E. side of the present Whitehall St.

22 Feb. 1659.—Teunis Tomassen Van Naarden to Frederick Aarsen; lot on the Marketvelt; bounded on the north by the Marketvelt Steeckje; on the east by lot of Cristaier Nysenromp; on the south by house and lot of Gerrit Hendricksen, farmer; on the west by the Marketvelt aforesaid; and being measured by the sworn surveyor Jacques Corteljou; is found on the east side 23 running feet 10 inches; on south side 52 feet; on west side 24 feet; on north side 52 feet 8 inches.—(Valentine's Conveyances, 1659). Also:—

22 Aug. 1663.—Teunis Tomassen Van Naarden to Jacob Teunissen Kay (his son-in-law), a house and lot east of the Marketvelt; bounded on the south the house and lot of Frerick Flypsen; north the lot of Jan Joosten; east the lot of Jan Eversen Boot; west the Marketvelt. On west side 2 rods 4 ft. 8 in.; south, running obliquely 5 rods 10 ft.; north side 5 rods, 5 ft.; broad, on this length, between Maria Polet and Jan Joosten 1 rod 6 inches; further, running out in the rear of Jan Joosten, 1 rod, 3 ft. 4 inches; broad, altogether, 2 rods, 3 ft., 10 inches; long, further on the south side, 5 rods, 6 ft.; broad, on east side, 2 rods, 6 inches.

Inasmuch as Teunis had commenced his real estate transactions and took title under the Dutch custom of partially ignoring their family surname and using the first name of their father followed by the name of the town they came from he probably felt obliged, to avoid confusion in land titles, to omit the name of

"OLD TRINITY CHURCH" NEW YORK CITY

Quick in his real estate deals. He had many more of them, some of record and some made verbally; for the word of a Dutchman was considered good.

Teunis Tomassen, being a mason by trade, undoubtedly had a hand in the construction of old Trinity Church that still adorns the landscape on one of the most prominent corners of lower New York. We make this statement because his grandson, Cornelis Quick, had a contract for supplying the stone for the edifice, which we find in: (Stoke's Icon., vol. 4:393).

(F-17) 17 Feb. 1696. Cornelis Quick and Isaac Anderson agree with the vestry of Trinity Church to cut and bring "stones from Monnius Island," for the period of one month, beginning next week, at one shilling and 3 half-pence a load. They will continue as long as necessary "for ye building of ye church." A Mr. Blackwell, evidently owner of the quarry on Monnius Island, "has granted the stone for the church without charge." This island was undoubtedly Blackwells Island, as it is still called. Cornelis (C12) was the owner of a sloop.

The vestry "resolved that the dementions of ye church proposed to be built in manner following—70 feet in length from outside to outside and fifty feet in breadth from outside to outside."

(Stoke's Icon. vol. 4:480)—"Pursuant to the Directions of the General Assembly of the Colony for maintaining the post road from New York to King's Bridge, Tunis Quick (C 14) and two others were appointed to be surveyors of the said highway."

In 1645 Theunis Tomaszen became the owner, by grant from the Governor, Peter Stuyvesant, of land partly covered by the site of the present Produce Exchange in New York City, on the north-east side of the present Whitehall Street. On this he built houses and sold them. Many other interesting facts of his career can be found in Stoke's "Iconography of Manhattan Island," and of his business connections with the Governor.

Theunis Thomaszen Quick, mason, was granted "Small Burgher Right" at New Amsterdam 14 April 1657. (NYHS Coll., 1885, p. 21).

He took the Oath of Allegiance 22-26 October 1664 at New York. (Doc. Rel. to Col. Hist. N.Y. 3:76).

He was living on the Beaver Graft, 19 April 1666.—(Fernow's "Records of N.A.," 1897, Vol. 5:224.)

His sister, OVENTJE CUYCK, is mentioned in same vol. P. 166.

His name appears in the N.A. Dutch Church baptismal records at intervals between 1640 and 1648.

As stated elsewhere he sometimes added the words "de Metselaer" (the mason) after his name. In 1641 a "Teunis de Metselaer" was a settler or property owner in Rennselaerswyck. (O'Callaghan's Hist. of New Netherlands, p. 430). This may or may not have been our Teunis.

This couple THEUNIS THOMASZEN QUICK and BELITJE JACOBUS, his wife, the founders of the QUICK FAMILY IN AMERICA, had seven children:—[B 1-7].

+ B 1 WEYNTJE THEUNISSE QUICK (A-1), "born tot Naarden den 23 July 1628;" m 16 Nov. 1642 in NAD Ch. to HERCK SYBOUTSZEN. They had 15 children, most of whom married and had children. Below we show data of 12 of them.—[c-1—10b]. (NYG&B Record, vol. 1:12—Marriages):

"Nov. 16, 1642), HENRICUS SIBELSZEN, j.m. van Laugendyck, en MARRITJE THEUNIS, j.d. van Naarden, were married D. Ch., N. Am." (The error in the lady's name is explained below.) (NYG&B Record, vol. 57, Jan. 1926, p. 14):

The writer of this article in the record is John Reynolds Totten, F.G.B.S.:—"In various records the above name is variously spelled—Henricus, Herek, Herk, Herkel, Herrick, Herry, Here, and Sibelsen, Syboutszen, Sybants, Sybensen, Sibertszen. The writer of this article asserts that he believes, all data and circumstances considered, that in making the entry record of this marriage, as above, the name of MARRITJE was erroneously used instead of her sister, WEYNTJE THEUNIS (Quick), and follows this with a record of the 12 children of Herck Syboutszen and Weyntje Theunis (Quick), their first child, Sybants, being baptised 4 Dec. 1644. Vol. 1:18, Baptisms, NYB&G Soc. Colls).

"And in Vol. 1:24 is recorded the marriage, 20 Sept. 1659, of Sebastian Claes Van Sevenhuysen en MARRITIE Theunis (Quick) —(B-4) Van Amsterdam in N. Nederlt.

"Moreover, Weyntje was much older than Marritie, Weyntje having been born in Naarden, Holland, den 23 July, 1628, as I have ascertained from research in Naarden records, while Marritie was baptized NAD. Ch. March 23, 1642 (BDC-13) and Weyntje's first child was born only two years later. That is surely sufficient proof. And Marritje's birth and 'reputed' marriage both occurred the same year 1642." (A.C.Q.).

There is no record of any children of MARRITJE and Herck Syboutszen, but only of Weyntje, proving that the entry of the name Marritie was an error.

"Wyntie Theunis united with the NAD Ch. 7 Oct. 1663."—(NYG&B Rec. Vol. 9:77).

Sibout Claesen (Cousin-german of Herck Syboutszen, the husband of Weyntje Quick, B-1), was the first proprietor of Hoorn's Hook, a sizeable point of land on the east side of Manhattan Island, just north of Blackwell's Island, near Hellgate. He was esteemed by his countrymen for his strength of character in resolutely standing against the assumptions of Gov. Stuyvesant.

Herck Syboutszen came from Langedyk, on the river Kuinre, in the district of Zevenwolden or "seven forests." (Cronkhite Family, in Annals of Newtown; p. 316).

(From Jan. 1926, NYG&B Rec. Vol. LVII, No. 1):—Traditional Family Origin of Anneke Jans-Bogardus: According to tradition, Count William of Nassau (alias William the Rich), of Dillenburg, married the Countess of Stallberg. From this union there was born, amongst other children, a son, born 16 April 1533, William (alias, The Silent), who at the age of eleven years became the Prince of Orange, and later, William X of Orange and William I of Holland and Stadtholder of the Dutch Republic. And he during his lifetime contracted four natural marriages, and a reputed fifth, either natural or morganatic, by whom he had two children who were given the surname of Webber; one being Jan, one being Sara, who according to tradition, married a Jan Sybant, a name that has many variations, the most generally accepted being Syboutzen. A series of marriages thereafter closely connected the families of Webber, Sybrant, or Syboutzen, and Bogardus, the latter being William Bogardus, son of Rev. Everardus Bogardus and his wife, Anneke (Webber) Jans-Bogardus.

+ B 2 JACOB THEUNISZEN QUICK de Looper, (the runner), (A-1). He sometimes signed his name that way, though "de Looper" was really a nickname given him. He lived in Albany 1660-1689. He is safely considered as one of the sons of Theunis Thomaszen, since according to the old Dutch method of naming their children, his middle name Theuniszzen denotes that he was a son of Theunis. This custom of so naming children has been very helpful in identifying members of early Dutch families. Besides, there was no other family of Quicks in America with whom he could have been connected, else our exhaustive research would have disclosed the fact. His name appears frequently in Court and Notarial records at Albany in the years 1660 to 1689, indicating that he made Albany his home. Fernow states that in 1674, Jacob had a residence on West side of Broad St., New York, between Wall and Beaver Sts., and was designated as a "baker," showing that he had a bakery business there in addition to his Albany interests. Jacob was sometimes, referred to as "van Naarden," making it reasonable to believe that he, as well as his older sister Weyntje, was born in Naarden before the parents came to America.

Jacob was married in the Dutch Church at New Amsterdam, 24 March 1655 to NEELTJE CORNELIS (MDC 19). The baptismal records at Albany are missing, so we have no records of the births of their children. However, we know they had at least four:—Belitje, Cornelis Jacobsen, Gerritje and Theunis Jacobsen, bap. 1718 to 1737 in N.A.D. Ch. These will be found in the "C" generation. [C11-14].

He was granted the "Small Burgher Right" 17 April 1657. (NYHS Coll. 1885, p. 23).

In 1674 he owned a residence on present West side of Broad St., between Wall and Beaver sts., then known as part of the Sheep Pasture and Princen Graft.—(Valentine's Hist. N.Y. p. 319).

For nearly three centuries an interesting Deed has been preserved in the family of Colonel Abraham Quick, (E 64), his ancestors, and later handed down to his descendents in Somerset County, N. J., notably the Garretsons, a prominent family of lawyers. Some years ago this document was acquired by Abram Quick Garretson (G402-h106), since which time it has been lost sight of. It was not found among the papers and effects of A. Q. G., who d in 1907, and it is thought he may have deposited it with one of the antiquarian societies or museums.

However, Mr. Martin S. Garretson (I11076), writes that he has a distinct recollection of the details and appearance of the deed and writes as follows:

"Jacob Theunisse Quick (B² in the Quick Genealogy), came to America prior to 1636, among the earliest of the settlers on Manhattan Island. It is presumed that by reason of friendship or in return for some service rendered to the Governor or to King George II, he was given a large tract of land, something over 4000 acres, in Somerset County, N. J. The deed for this grant of land was signed by His Majesty, George II, and also carried the signatures or tribal marks of a number of Indian Chiefs, who in reality were the owners of the land. These chiefs were of the Delaware tribe, and I well remember the signatures of two of them—one being the figure of a Wolf, and the other the figure of a Turtle, and others which I do not now recall. The amount and description of the articles given in exchange were recorded in the Deed. The document was written on parchment. The Seal was stamped on a round block of wood, three or four inches in diameter and over an inch thick. This was attached to, and hung from the bottom of the Deed by a cord, both ends of which were attached to the block of wood and covered with a heavy coat of wax bearing the seal. The Deed was folded so that the seal hung outside by the cord and about four inches from the bottom. The writing was clear and perfectly legible, and the whole document was in perfect condition when it was loaned to Uncle Abram Quick Garretson in 1889 or 1890, I think."—(M.S.G.)

With the burning of the County courthouse at Millstone, during Simcoe's raid on Oct. 25, 1779, it is presumed that this deed, with all other county records, was destroyed. The 4000 acres was undoubtedly in the vicinity of Belle Mead, Harlingen and Ten-Mile-Run—where the ancestors of Col. Abraham Quick, as well as his succeeding generations, resided.

+ B 3 HILLEGONDE THEUNISSE QUICK (A1), bap. 25 Nov. 1640 (BDC 11), in the N.A.D. Ch.; d 15 March, 1707; m banns pub. 29 March 1658 to JACOB THEUNISEN deKay (Van Thuyt), who came from Thuyt in Gelderland, Holland. They had 14 chil., bap. 1659 to 1686 and we give records of 3 of them.—[c 11-13].

On the bap. records of the N.A. Dutch Ch. the name of Jacob Theunissen deKay appears at intervals between 1659 and 1686.—(Holland Soc. Year Book 1896).

"Newburgh Hist. Soc. Coll." p. 35, mentions that Jacob was a wealthy burgher and an Elder in the Dutch Ch., and that he was a baker, merchant and trader.

It seems probable that Jacob was a son of William deKay van Haarlem, b London, 23 Feb. 1589; d 1658. He was one of the Directors of the Dutch West Indies Company. He evidently came here in 1630 to see how the company's interests were progressing, for he is shown in "Valentine's Manual" as the first "Collector of the Port," which was really "Collector of Imports and Duties on Beavers and Furs." No wonder he is mentioned as the richest man in the colony in 1640. We have no records on which to connect him with Jacob who m Hillegonde Quick. Jacob came from Thuyl in Gelderland, and as both William and Jacob were b in Holland, any records of relationship might be found over there. Someone of the family discovered somewhere a notation that "William was bap. 23 Feb. 1589."

We have no data of the birth of Jacob (about 1633), but he d 24 April 1706. In 1686 a list of members of the Dutch Ch. in Nieuw Amsterdam includes Jacob deKay and his wife Hillegond Theunisse, who resided on Beurs Straat (Exchange St.—the present Whitehall St.) (Valentine's Hist. N.Y., p 331). The same source, on p. 319, states that in 1674 Jacob Teunis deKay was the owner of real estate in N.A. valued at $8000., located on the present East side of Whitehall St., between Pearl and Beaver streets, then known as a part of Marketfield and Broadway. Also other property valued at $10,000 on the present Beaver St. and Marketfield St., between Broad St. and Bowling Green, and on West side of Broad St., south of Beaver St.

In 1701 JACOB DE KEY, who married Hillegonde Theunisse Quick (B3), became the owner of a farm of over 235 acres in Harlem (the upper part of Manhattan Island), fronting on the Hudson River and reaching from what is now 107th Street to 125th Street, near Fort Washington, known as the "Indian's Great Maize Land." After his time this land became the country seats of the DePeysters and others, and on portions of which stood the Asylum for the Insane, and the Leake and Watts Orphan House, and still later—see below.

In 1710 (year date evidently an error), Jacob de Key bought the Bosch farm, adjoining him on the north, also fronting on the Hudson and extending from what is now about 125th Street up to 130th Street.

Following is a copy of the deed to the first tract:

"The Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty, of the City of New York, convey, July 21, 1701, to Jacob de Key, of the said city, bolter, for £237, all that certain tract or parcel of land situate, lying and being on the Island of Manhattans, within the Out Ward of the City of New York, lying on the north side of the land of Teunis Ides, and beginneth at a certain old black oak tree marked with three notches, which stands in the southeast corner of the fence of Teunis Ides, and ranges along the fence of the said Teunis Ides northwest sixty chains to Hudson's River, and from thence along the said river northeast and by north (nearly) seventy chains, and from thence southeast and by east till it cuts the line of Harlem, ten chains, and from thence it runs directly south along the line of Harlem Commons eight-eight chains to the place where it first began; containing in all two hundred and thirty-five (235) acres, three roods and eighteen perches, or thereabouts, all English measure; being bounded on the east by the Commons of Harlem, southerly by the land of Teunis Ides, and on the northwest side, or thereabouts, by Hudson's River, and upon the corner northerly by lands of Thomas Turneur; together with all and singular the pastures," etc. (Grants, City Comptroller's Office, Vol. 2:28). Also, see Map of Harlem, pp. 833; 395, Ricker's History of Harlem.

The lands of Thomas Turneur, mentioned in above deed, was afterwards sold to Bosch, and later bought by Jacob deKay.

A map of the 235 acre farm, mentioned above, is hanging in the office of Sidney Gilder deKay (i-5, below), at 30 Rockefeller Plaza, N. Y. It comprised what is now Morningside Heights, from 110th to 124th sts., now occupied by St. Luke's Hospital, Cathedral of St. John the Divine, and all the Columbia College buildings, and many others. Colonel Thomas deKay (d3) sold it and bought 1500 acres in Orange Co., in what is known as the Waywawonda Valley, south of Warwick. Some of the family still live there on the remaining 600 acres.

Thomas was a farmer; one of the earliest of the Dutch settlers in Ulster Co., owner of considerable land and prominent in the development of that section. In 1665 he is listed as a Dutch settler in Esopus. 4 Sept. 1676 he had a survey made of 40 acres "at ye Esopus at ye Mumbackus lying at ye Round Doubt River." This was in Rochester Twp., Ulster Co. (Syl. 213) (Stoke's Iconography p. 12).

In 1676 Thomas Quick signed a petition of the inhabitants of Esopus (Kingston), for a minister of the gospel "that can preach both English and Dutche, wich will bee most fitting for this place, it being in its Minority." (Eccl. Rec. State of N. Y., p. 684).

"Thomas Quick in July 1684 bought of Harmon Hekau, the Indian who took up civilized life, his farm at Mombackus, as Thomas already had grants in vicinity of Rochester Ch." (Syl. Hist. Ulster, p. 186).

"Thomas Teunisse Quick was a grantee of land in Ulster Co., 26 Aug. 1686, and paid for quit rent two bushels of wheat annually." (Rec. 2:146).

"1686, Thomas Quick, trooper, Capt. Henry Beekman's Co., at Kingston." (CMR 1896, p. 448).

"Thomas Quick took oath of allegiance, Ulster Co., 1 Sept. 1689." (Syl. 70).

Thomas Quick, 13 Oct. 1695, appears with Annetje Quick as wit. at a baptism in Kingston Ch. (Kg. 869).

"In Jan. 1696 Thomas Quick, Teunis Quick (his son), Hendryk Decker (his son-in-law), and Jan Middagh (brother-in-law of son Johannes), were members of a syndicate of some twenty Dutchmen to receive a patent to purchase land in the Minisink region." (NJHS Mag. Jan. 1926, p. 37. On p. 31 the following: Mention is made of a map dated 1749 showing location of QUICK'S MILL, in the Minisink region. (NYG&B Notes, p. 146). Quite likely this is the mill built by Thomas Quick (C44) (son of Dirck Quick (B7) who was slain and scalped by the Indians, an act that his son Tom Quick spent a lifetime in avenging, as told in another section of this book.

"MINISINK REGION" is the name originally applied to a settlement of Dutch and Swedes on both sides of the Delaware River prior to 1700. It also included a portion of n.w. New Jersey and southerly parts of Orange and Sullivan counties in N. Y. state, and N.E. part of Pa. Minisink village was at the confluence of the Delaware and Neversink Rivers. It was pillaged and burned by Brandt and his followers.

THOMAS THEUNISSE QUICK, died previous to 11 Oct. 1698, when his widow, RYMERIG QUICK, signed a petition of redress in an act of trespassing on land in Orange Co. Rymerig was living as late as 9 Nov. 1716, then signing a petition relating to the Minisink patent; also, on 9 Nov. 1719, she is referred to as Remaugh, and had a granddaughter Rympe Mackey.

Widow Rimderig Quick, 14 Oct. 1698 was granted license to purchase Indian lands. (CCM. p—) and (NYColl. mss., 42:76).

14 Sept. 1703 Capt. Jochim Schoonmaker desires grant of land where sawmill stands on Mombackus Kill, for himself and Roymerig Quick in company. (Syl. 208).

Rymerigh Quick, 9 Dec. 1709 assessed £80 in Ulster Co. tax lists.

Rymerigh Quick, 21 Jan. 1711 assessed £90 in Ulster Co. tax lists. (Rec. 62:274, 374).

In 1709-10 Rymerigh Quick was taxed for 1 fireplace, 1 stove, 2 shillings. (Rec. 62:279). It seems to have been a custom to tax people for luxuries even as far back as those days.

In Basse's Survey Book, p. 178, in the office of the Secretary of State, at Trenton, N. J., there is given the description of a survey made 17 June, 1717; the land, about 3000 acres, lying on the Machokmac (Port Jervis), a branch of the Delaware in West Jersey. This is the land that Teunis, son of Thomas Theunisse Quick, formed a syndicate to handle; for in 1713 Teunis bought one tract of 2500 acres and two more of 465 and 60 acres, and assigned it to Johannes, Claus and Simon Westvall, Tunis Quick (himself), his "widowed" mother. Lenora (Romora, Rymerick) Quick, and Cor-nelis Ducher; dated 28 April 1713. "All of ye Western Division of ye Province of Nova Caesaria" (New Jersey). The Westvalls were cousins of Teunis. These lands, surveyed by Samuel Green, were found to lie in N. Y. State in the final settlement of the N. Y.-N. J. boundary dispute—(Pub. N. J. H. Soc., 11:40). "This land was bought from Thomas Stevenson, an owner of West Jersey Proprietary Rights."

+ B 6 GEERTJE THEUNISSE QUICK (A1), bap. 12 Nov. 1645 in N.A.D. Ch. (BDC 20), m banns 1 Dec. 1668 to CARSTON LUERSEN. They had eleven children. In 1686 their names appear in a list of members of the N. A. Dutch Church, and their residence as Langs "T Strand (Along the Strand—the Water Side). (VNY p. 331). In Valentine's List of House Owners in 1674, he states Carston Leerssen owns property worth $7500., on west side of Pearl St., between Wall and William Sts., then called the Waterside. And in Valentine's List of Members of the N.A.D. Church—"Carsten Leursen, en zyn h.v. Geertje Quick."

+ B 7 DIRCK THEUNISZEN QUICK (A1), bp. 26 July 1648 in the New Amsterdam Dutch Church (BDC 24), d before 1702, as proved by indentures of his two sons; m HANNAH (Johanna, Anna) JANS in 1672. We have a record of four of their children [C41-45]. The bp. record of his third child in the same Dutch Church states he is the son of Dirck Quick and ANNA HODJE. As to the identity of the mother there are three theories: first (and most likely), it may have been the same Hannah (or Anna) Jans, and that Hodje may have been her family name—a Dutch custom being that the family name is often omitted and the father's given name used instead. Second, she may have been a daughter of an English family Hodge which was living in New York at that time. Third, she may have been ANNA deHOOGES, b prob. abt. 1650, the second child of Anthony deHooges, in which case Dirck Quick would have been her second husband. The church records show that Anna deHooges m Warner Hornbeek and had 7 children baptised, the last on 19 Feb. 1688. Date of her first child missing, but the second was baptised 18 June 1671 at Kingston. Then comes the record of Warner Hornbeek and Grietje Tyssen with 7 children baptised from 1693 to 1708. Either Anna deHooges or Warner Hornbeek died about 1690. The latter seems more probable because otherwise he would have raised two good sized families. It is probable that the second family is by a son—Warner Hornbeek, Junior, who could well have been of age if born about 1670. No Kingston reference to Anna are found for 14 years—1688 to 1702, when she witnessed the baptism of her son (?) Warner's child Marritje (No. 1334). The theory is that she married Dirck Quick and lived in New Amsterdam in the intervening period, having her son Theunis 2nd there in 1695, and that after Dirck's death about 1702 she returned to Kingston. Plausibility is added to this theory by the fact that Teunis Quick (a nephew of Dirck) married Claartje deHooges in 1696, a daughter of Johannes (KM 121). The latter theory is advanced by a careful and painstaking genealogist, Mr. James S. Elston, of Hartford, Conn., a descendent of Dirck Quick.

Dirck Theuniszen Quick in 1698 in Westchester Towne swore allegiance to King William—(NYGB Rec. Jan. 1928).

It seems possible that Dirck's mother, Belitje, grew homesick and made a trip across the ocean to the old country, taking her youngest son, Dirck, then 15 years old, along for company, for on 27 Sept. 1663 the passenger list on the sailing vessel DeStetyn, out of Holland (Capt. Isaac Gerritsz Schaep), contain these names—Belitje Jacobsz and Dirck Teunissen—(DHNY vol. 3:52-63).

At a convention in the N. Y. City Hall 4 Sept. 1689 Dirck was named as a Justice of the Peace.

“C”—THIRD GENERATION

- + C 11 BELITJE JACOBS QUICK (B2), was named for her grandmother. She m 1st, GERRIT COSYN (Cosine); 2nd, THEUNIS JANSZE. “a widower from the BAY,” banns pub. 19 Dec. 1706; m 16 Jan. 1707 (Flatbush D.C., p. 96). The Will of Gerritt Cozynse of N. Y., 7 Sept. 1702, mentions his wife, Beeltie, and names “Theunis Quick, my brother-in-law, as Guardian of my children” (NYW 2:16).
- + C 12 CORNELIS JACOBSEN QUICK (B2), of New Albany, m 1st, 23 Jan. 1682, ABIGAIL ABRAHAMS in the N.A.D. Ch. (MDC 50). His second marriage was to MARIA VAN HOOGTEN. 28 May 1685 in the N.A.D. Ch. (MDC 56); by his first wife he had 2 sons—Abraham and Jacobus [D 1-2], and by second wife 8 children [D3-10]. All were bap. in N.A.D. Ch., 1682 to 1704. Cornelis Jacobsen Quick lived in Albany in 1682, later in New Amsterdam. In 1682, the year he was married, he became a member of the N. Y. Dutch Church. His name appears at intervals, 1682 to 1704, in Baptismal Records of N.A.D. Ch. In 1686 Cornelis and wife, Maria Van Hoogten, were members of N.A.D. Ch. and resided on Brugh Straat (Bridge St.); Cornelis and his brother Theunis were living in the North Ward in N. Y. in 1695 to 1699, as shown by tax lists, the only ones of that name in that section.
- Under Teunis Tomaszen Quick (A1), will be found Cornelis' contract to furnish the stone for building old Trinity Church in 1696. He was owner of a sloop in which the stone was hauled from the quarry.
- + C 13 GERRITJE JACOBS QUICK (B2) m 24 Oct. 1683, LEENDERT ALBERTSZEN deGRAU. Their son, JACOBUS deGRAU, was bap. 9 May 1689 in N.Y.D. Ch. They probably had other children. Leendert may have been a son of Arent Leendertzen deGrau, whose name appears at intervals from 1661 to 1684 in bap. records of N.A.D. Ch. In 1686 Gerritje Quick, wife of Leendert deGrau, was a member of N.A.D. Ch., and they resided Langs De Wall (Wall St.)—(Valentine's Hist. N. Y., p. 331).
- + C 14 THEUNIS JACOBSEN QUICK (B2), native of Albany, m 1 Dec. 1689 to VROUTJE JANSE HARING in the New Amsterdam Dutch Church. She was b 3 March 1663 (or 3 May 1667), the dau. of Jans Petersen Haring of Tappan, N. Y., who was b in Holland 26 Dec. 1633, and in 1662 he m Grietje Cosyn. Theunis evidently left Albany and made his home in New York after his marriage, where records of him are found. VROUTJE became a member of the N.A.D. Ch. 25 Feb. 1685. The meaning of the name VROUTJE is "little wife." They had 9 chil. [D 11-19.]

Theunis was made a "Freeman" 18 Dec. 1695 (NYHS Coll. 1885 p. 59). He and his brother Cornelis resided in the North Ward, New York, according to the tax lists for 1695 to 1699, and were the only ones of that name in that section. About the same time his household consisted of 1 male, 1 female, 4 children, 1 negress (Valentine's Hist. of N. Y., p. 358). Theunis had interests in N. J. also, and several of his sons later settled there on extensive farms. He was among the contributors to pay the expenses of a Domine to come from Holland to take charge of the congregation at Three Mile Run, Somerset Co., N. J.

"Teunis Kwik" joined the N. Y. Dutch Ch. 2 March 1705 (Record 59:263).

The will of Theunis Jacobsen Quick, "baker," dated 25 April 1739, proved 1 Nov. 1743, names his sons, Jacobus, Teunis, Cornelis, Petrus, and Abraham, and dau. Neeltie, wife of John Furman (or Thurman). From the above we infer that among other enterprises he was in the bakery business, perhaps succeeding his father, who was in the same business in May, 1667, as stated in vol. 6:67 of Fernow's "Records of N.A." His will also provides that his daughter Neeltie is to receive the house on the east side of Broad St., N. Y., the 5 sons to have the rest of his estate. Their Negro woman and child to be sold to the highest bidder among his children—(WNYHS, 3:412).

"Elizabeth Wessels, h.v.v. John Furman, joined N.A.D. Ch. 16 May 1721." This record seems to indicate that John was a widower when he married Neeltie.

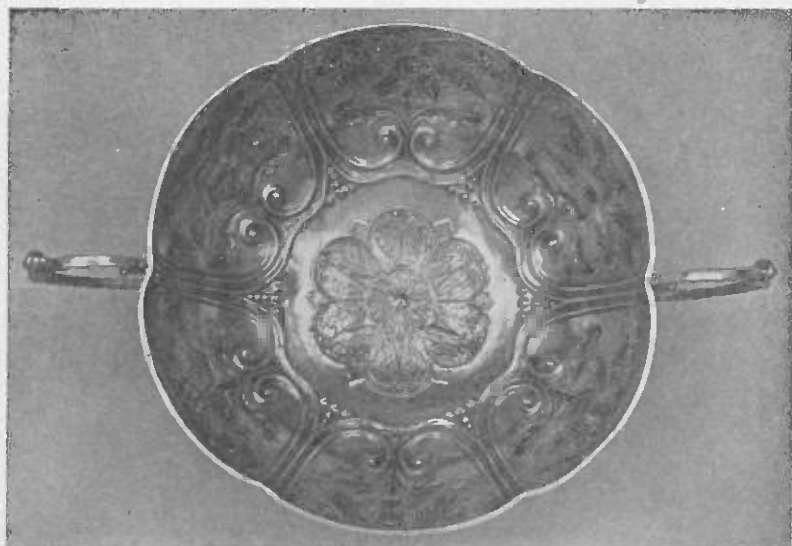

The New York Sun of April 9, 1938, records, together with photos, the coming to light of the large silver bowl made for Theunis and VROUTIE Quick.

"The largest two-handled American Silver Bowl known to date has just been acquired by Robert Ensco, Inc., of New York City. It was made by Cornelius Kierstede, a silversmith of Dutch ancestry, who was baptized in New York in 1675. He served his apprenticeship as a silversmith and became a Freeman in 1698. He moved to New Haven in 1722.

"This Kierstede bowl is unusual because of its size and its beauty. It is ten inches in diameter, four and one-half inches high and weighs a bit over twenty-six ounces. It is more than an inch larger than any other known two-handled bowl made by an American silversmith.

"There are six panels with embossed floral decoration that suggest the flower motifs used by early Dutch painters. In the bottom of the bowl is a large conventionalized flower of intricate workmanship.

"While Cornelius Kierstede worked in New York City his silver was highly individual and showed strong traces of continental influence. Unlike many pieces of fine silver, this twohandled bowl bears the initials of the owners, Q over T and V, for Theunis Jacobsen Quick and his good wife, VROUTJE JANSE HARING QUICK. They were married in the Dutch Reformed Church in New York City, 1st Dec. 1689. Later they moved to Somerset County, N. J., where Theunis was an honored member of the Dutch Reformed Church in New Brunswick.

"There is no question that this bowl was made by Cornelius Kierstede while he still lived in New York City. It shows a well-defined foreign influence with the caryatid handles and the elaborate detail. Stephen G. C. ENSCO considers this piece one of the most important examples of late seventeenth century American silver he has ever seen."

This bowl is now in possession of the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York City. A photograph of it appears in this book.

Jan Pietersen Haring, father of VROUTJE, who m Theunis Jacobsen Quick (C14), was the leader in a project to buy out the Tappan Indian rights in a large tract of land, some 12,000 acres, lying on the west side of the Hudson, partly in N. Y. and partly in N. J. Of the 16 shares in the syndicate Haring took three shares for himself and two sons. The deed to the land was signed by the Tappan Indian chiefs 17 March 1681 (old style, which is 1682 in the modern calendar). The land was paid for in goods of many descriptions. Jan died in December 1683. Jan's sons, Peter and Cosyn Haring, each had one share in the syndicate, and on 8 April 1685, when Jan's widow, Grietje Cosyns, married Daniel De Clerk, the third share passed to the widow's new husband.—(Rockland & Orange Counties, vol. 2:36.)

Census of 1702 showed no Quicks in Orange County. In the list of all the militia in Orange Co., 25 Oct. 1715, there were no Quicks.

(Ibid.: 2:23)—Census of 1712 in Menesincks:—Theunis Quick (C14), who married VROUTJE Haring, had in his family 1 male above 60, 2 males 16 to 60, 9 males under 16, 3 females above 60, and 7 under 16, a considerable household of 22 members.

The compiler, by a systematic check-up of all the Quicks of that period, has reached the following conclusions which not only show where the different ones were living but approximately how the three generations of near relatives made up the one household of 22 members. History does not insist that they all lived under one roof. There may have been "leantos" or several log cabins. Here's the compiler's roll call:

THEUNIS' father, Jacob Theunissen Quick (B2), was the one over 60; THEUNIS and son Jacobus (D12) were 16 to 60; the 9 males under 16 were THEUNIS' 4 sons, and 4 sons of THEUNIS' nephew, Teunis (C32), and another Teunis, the son of Dirck (B7).

The 3 females above 60 were THEUNIS' mother, Neeltje Cornelis, and 2 of THEUNIS' aunts.

The 7 females under 16 were THEUNIS' 2 daughters, Neeltje and Jenneke; and 2 daughters of THEUNIS' nephew Teunis; and perhaps 3 maids to help with the housework, or else some of the daughters of THEUNIS' nephew Juriaen, although Juriaen was supposed to be living in Ulster County at that time. However, we do know that THEUNIS' nephew Teunis, and his wife Claartje deHooges, were living somewhere around Port Jervis at the time engaged in promoting another syndicate of a few thousand acres, as will be explained under C32.

Goshen, Orange County, N. Y., Recorder's Office, A-65, shows a conveyance of land from Theunis Quick and wife VROUTJE to VROUTJE's brother, Peter Haring.

"Pursuant to the Directions of the General Assembly of the Colony for maintaining the post road from New York to Kings Bridge, Theunis Quick (C14) and two others were appointed to be surveyors of the said highway."—(Stoke's Iconography, 4:480.)

The Will of Henry Titus, Huntington, Suffolk County, N. Y., directs his brother, John Pugsley, to "pay all I owe on bond to Theunis Quick and others."—(NYW 2:330).

Tappan Church, p. 209:—Daniel deClerck was an Elder. As widower of Maria deMoll he m in N. Y., 8 Apr. 1685, Grietje Cosyns, widow of Jan Pietersen Haring, the mother of Pieter and Cosyn Haring and 5 others. He had no children by his second wife, but at least one son by the first marriage followed his father to Tappan, and a deClerck line from him came down through the records.

Kingston 18 Apr. 1675 (K 128), m 24 Sept. 1696 (KM 121) to CLAARTJE deHOOGES, dau. of Johannes² deHooges (and Margarita Post, his wife), granddaughter of Anthony¹ deHooges (and Eva Albertse Bratt). Antonie deHooges was at one time Commissioner of, and later "Secretary of the Colonies." The promontory in the highlands of the Hudson, called "Anthony's Nose," was named for him. CLAARTJE was b at Hurley, bap. at Kingston 27 Apr. 1679 (KB 183). TEUNIS was b in Kingston, res. at marriage in Mombaccus, near Rochester, Ulster Co. Mombaccus was the early name for territory now partly in Rochester Twp., Ulster Co., N. Y. They had 8 chil. all bap. at Kingston—[D 31-38].

In Jan. 1696 Teunis in company with his father and about 20 other Dutchmen received a patent to purchase a large tract of land in the Minisink region. In 1717 Teunis formed a syndicate to handle a tract of 3000 acres near Port Jervis, N. Y., which is mentioned fully under the caption of his parents.

+ C 33 JURRIAEN QUICK (B5), bap. at Kingston 20 Apr. 1679 (K 181), m 21 Apr. 1701 (KM 168) to REBECCA TIETSOORT, dau. of William Tiesoort. They had 7 chil. all appearing in Kingston bap. records—[D 41-47]. Their m record states that he was b and res. in Mombaccus, and that she was b in Schenectady and res. in Minisink.

The will of William Fitsoor (Tietsoort), Dutchess Co., N. Y., dated 11 Dec. 1716; proved 29 Oct. 1726, begins: "In den namen des Heeren, Amen . . ." It names wife Neeltje, dau. of Teunis Swart; names their 7 chil., including "Rebecca, wife of Jurian Kwik"—(NYW 2:341).

In 1709-10 Jurriaen was taxed one shilling for one fireplace. "In 1741 Jury Quick, son of Thomas, sold a small tract of land for £80." In the will of Zacharai Hoffman of Shawangunk, proved 1744, is mentioned "a tract of land of 1200 acres upon Hudson River in Ulster Co., now in tenure of Jury Quick," etc.

The 1200 acres mentioned was the Griggs and Graham Patent, 1712: "Beginning at the North side of the South Branch of the 'Old Man's Kill' at a certain point of land between the said branches, and runs along the Hudson's River in a direct line 102 chains, thence into the woods 115 chains, bounded on the North and South by lands not yet laid out, East by Hudson's River, and West by the German's land not yet laid out, containing 1200 acres."

Jurian Quick was listed as residing in the Town of Rochester, Ulster County, as late as 1718. In 1720-21 he purchased from Alexander Griggs a one-half interest, or 600 acres, in the Griggs and Graham Patent granted in 1712. The patent covering lands bordering on "Old Man's Kill" is in what is now known as the Town of Marlborough. In 1724-25 Jurian Quick and his son-in-law Alexander Mackie were living on and paying taxes on this land. In 1727 Jurian leased his interest in the land to Zachariah Hoffman, who had already purchased the other half of the Patent from heirs of Augustus Graham.

In 1738 Jurian Quick and Alexander Mackie were enlisted men in the foot company of militia, precinct of the Highlands, Capt. Thos. Ellison. The homestead farm of Alexander Mackie was located on the Patent granted 17 Oct. 1720 to Jacobus Kip & Company. The patent covered the district east, north and west of Orange Lake and was densely timbered, locally known as "Rocky Forest." The location is in the Northwest part of the Town of Newburgh, about seven miles from the City of Newburgh, Orange County, N. Y.—(Orange County and Newburgh, by Ruttenber.)

Alexander Mackie and his wife Reymenrich Quick are probably buried at Lattintown, Ulster County, in what was at one time an apple orchard on the Joseph Carpenter property, a burial ground for neighboring families and so used until 1808. More than a hundred of old Marlborough residents were buried there.

- C 43 THEUNIS QUICK, 2nd (B7), bp. 18 Sept. 1695 (BDC 230), and recorded in the Dutch Church as the son of Dirck Quick and Anna Hodje. "Indenture made 27 March 1706, between Theunis Quick and William Jackson, Cordwainer, Whereby Theunis Quick binds himself to William Jackson as an apprentice to learn the trade of a shoemaker, for seven years from date." Usual form except that the apprentice "shall not frequent taverns, inns or ale-houses, except it be about his master's business there to be done." Signed 27 March, 1706, "Theunis Quick. In the presence of Margareta Drayer, Jacob deKay (B3), (his uncle), S. Broughton." This was acknowledged 17 July 1706 before Wm. Peartree—(NYHS Coll. 1885, p. 615). We find no further records of Theunis. Possibly he may have been one of quite a number of Dutch from that locality who migrated to Maryland, Virginia and the Carolinas, with no traceable records. This possibility is heightened by the fact that the 1790 census of North Carolina shows three Quicks—Benjamin, Richard and Tunis, supposed to be brothers, for Tunis appears to be almost strictly a Quick family name, even unto 1942. Richard Quick of Rowan County, N. C., was an Ensign in the Colonial Army in the Revolutionary War—(Col. Rec. of N. C., 10:320). A possible clue to the descendents of Theunis may be studied and noted under F-940.
- + C 44 THOMAS QUICK (B7), b about 1690. We find no birth or baptism record of him in any of the churches, but Mr. James S. Elston, a careful genealogist of Hartford, Conn., discovered in NYHS Coll. 1885, p. 602, the following indenture of Thomas Quick as well as that of his brother Theunis, given above. This is a valuable discovery for the parentage of Thomas has baffled his descendents for many years. "INDENTURE of Thomas Quick, son of Derick Quick, deceased, with the consent of his brother-in-law, Henry Heus (C 42), and Helegant (Hillegonde) deKey (B3), his aunt, to John King, Shipwright, for seven years from 1st November, 1702." Usual form—"Apprentice to be taught to read, write and cypher, and at the expiration of the term to receive one axe, one adz, one maul, one saw, one chisel and one mallet." Signed 2nd November, 1702, by Thomas Quick.
- The 22nd Dec. 1713, THOMAS QUICK. "b in New York," m MARGRIETE (Grietje) DEKKER, bp. 4 Oct. 1691, dau. of Gerrit J. Dekker and Magdaleentje Williamson Schut, his wife (first banns pub. 2 Apr. 1684), who was a dau. of Willem Jens Schut of Albany (Hoe's Kingston, 507). Thomas and Margriete had 10 chil.—[D 81-90].

THOMAS QUICK, in 1722, bought land at the junction of a creek with the Delaware River, where he built a mill, house and barn. When he moved his family from Kingston to Milford, Pa., vicinity in 1733, where he had built, or was building, his house, his son Dirk was 19 and daughter Catherine a babe in arms. Tom and Aen were born afterwards, at the new home. Later, when the place became a village, it took its name from the mill and the convenient fording place.

The compiler believes he has been extremely fortunate in discovering the exact site of the mill, and below is appended an authenticated abstract of the original deed to the land and water-fall:

Solomon Davis.

Recorded August 26th, 1732.

THOMAS QUICK joined Capt. John Van Etten's First Company 12 Jan. 1756, and was one of the signers of the following agreement:

"We, the subscribers, do hereby engage ourselves to serve as soldiers in His Majesty's service under the command of Capt. John Van Etten for the space of one month, and whosoever of us shall get drunk, desert or prove cowardly in time of action, or disobedient to our officers, shall forfeit his pay.

"This agreement we make in consideration of being allowed at the rate of Six Dollars per month wages, One Dollar for the use of a gun and blanket to each man, who shall furnish himself with them, and the Provisions and Rum mentioned in a paper hereunto annexed."

This agreement was signed by all the men, one being THOMAS QUICK, whose name was scratched off and a note added:

"Killed by Indians in February 1756."

Van Etten's First Company was recruited from the section known as "The Forks of the Delaware"—the Delaware and Lehigh Rivers.

The Moravian Mission settlement near the forks of the Delaware was the scene of many Indian raids, for the hordes of natives, despite a few of the Indian converts, were intensely jealous of the white man's farms. This jealousy was largely engendered by the outrageous swindle—the "Walking Purchase"—whereby the Indians had been forced into the sale of the entire Minisink Flats on the Pennsylvania side of the Delaware. The Walking Purchase was a deed made in 1737 by certain Delaware chiefs to the Proprietaries, extending from a certain preceding purchase North West as far as a man could walk in a day and a half, and then eastward to the Delaware. While designed to cover the region around the forks it finally covered the best land in the Minisink region.

In September 1737 three selected men and three Indians, together with officials on horseback, started at sunrise from Wrightstown, Pa., and at noon next day one of the walkers, a very rapid traveller, struck his hatchet into a tree on the slope of the Pocono Mountains near what later became Albrightsville—about 65 miles from the starting point. Then the officials, instead of running the line "easterly" back to the Delaware, as agreed, had it surveyed to run at right-angles to the "walk." This resulted in taking in a very large section of the best land and favorite hunting ground of the natives, and greatly enraged them. This surveyed line touched the Delaware above Port Jervis instead of near the Delaware Water Gap and Old Dansbury—five miles west of the Water Gap.

(In Northampton Co., Pa. WILLS no. 86 ["Old Dansbury"]:
"THOMAS QUICK, Estate. Administrators: William Ennis (son-in-law of Thomas, husband of Elizabeth [D84], Benj. Shoemaker and James Hyndshaw, all yeomen of said county, 9 March 1756. Inventory by Andris Dingman, and Capt. Johannes Van Etten [Capt. of the militia company that Thomas joined]; 2 April 1756; vendue 10 June 1756 at Minisink").

(Ibid. no. 131): Solomon Jennings' Estate, yeoman (one of the three walkers of the famous "Indian Walk"); wife living but not named. Chil., John, oldest son; Rachel, Elizabeth, Isaiah, Susanna, Ezekiel (a minor), and Judith (a minor). Executors: son John and son-in-law, Nicholas Scull. Dated 4 June 1755; proved 8 March 1757.

For his part in the "walk" Solomon Jennings was granted several tracts of land, one covering the greater part of the site of Old Dansbury, now Stroudsburgh, Pa. He was Captain of an Ulster Scots company of militia. Solomon evidently did not make the entire "walk," for a notation states that he dropped out at Lehigh (where the Bethlehem steel plant now stands), and went to his home two miles above that point on the Lehigh River, which was later known as "Geisinger Farm." He died on this plantation on the Lehigh 17 Feb. 1757 (Ibid. p. 79).

Solomon is supposed to be the grandfather of Anna Jennings, who m DAVID QUICK (F614) in 1789 and were the ancestors of a numerous group of descendents to be found in later pages of this book.

Thomas Quick built the mill, house and barn on the Delaware where the turbulent little Modder Kill stream from the hills empties into the Delaware, and the falls on the Modder Kill powered the mill. He was one of the few white men of that section who was on the friendliest terms with the Delaware Indians. They brought him game and furs, and he gave them flour. One night in February, 1756, with young Tom, he was crossing the Delaware on the ice with a grist on his back. A band of drunken Indians, perhaps mistaking him, shot old Thomas down with poisoned arrows, and later scalped him, the murderer stripping off the silver cuff links and silver shoe buckles from Thomas. As he fell Thomas commanded young Tom to run, which he did, for the howling Indians were coming on the run; but he did not run until he had shot one of them.

To avenge this ruthless murder, and with no civil courts worth mentioning, TOM swore a declaration of war of one man against the entire Delaware tribe until he found the man who had shot and scalped his father. Forty years of this one-man warfare went on until it was a household word in all three adjoining states.

Indians were shot by scores and each one thoroughly searched for the silver links and buckles but without success.

Finally TOM was in a tavern one night when an Indian came in—Mushwink. He and Tom had been boys together, playmates, learning together to swim, trail, fish, shoot and hunt—fast friends for years—the only Delaware Tom would have spared. But Mushwink was very drunk that night. Approaching Tom he said, "You hate Delawares; I hate you. You kill Delawares; I kill your father." "Prove it!" shouted Tom, grasping his rifle more firmly. Mushwink, staggering against the bar, reached down in his pocket and brought out the links and buckles. "See?" he leered. "March!" ordered Tom, swinging the Indian around towards the door and heading him far down the road where the rifle report was scarcely heard.

One of the descendants of the murdered Thomas Quick was William Bross (E 228-g 172), b 4 Nov. 1813 in Montague, Sussex County, N. J. In 1822 he came over the river to Milford as a small boy, picked up a precarious existence at odd jobs, and some years later, with one borrowed dollar in his pocket, he struck out afoot over the mountains for Williams College in Massachusetts. Four years later he graduated, settled in Chicago and became interested in newspaper work and politics, becoming the associate of Joseph Medill. He was one of the group assisting him when Medill launched the Chicago Tribune, the paper that now carries at its masthead the slogan—"The World's Greatest Newspaper." William Bross was one of that paper's first editors.

As an associate of Medill, who nominated Abraham Lincoln for the Presidency, Bross was a strong Lincoln supporter and as such he was elected Lieutenant-Governor of Illinois. William Bross furnished the funds that built the monument at Milford to the memory of Tom Quick—the "Avenger of the Delaware." A century ago several small books were printed recounting the many adventures of Tom Quick, real or fanciful, and William Bross had more or less to do with the writing of them. Possibly Tom was the original of some of James Fenimore Cooper's characters. William Bross was a grandson of Grietje Quick (E 228). See g 172.

C 45 JACOBUS QUICK (B7), b abt. 1697 "in New Amsterdam." An exhaustive search of all available records fails to find anyone of the name of Quick of that period except the descendants of Theunis Thomaszen Quick (A1). Hence Jacobus, who m Francisca Consalus-duk, must have been a son of one of the "B" generation. The age of the oldest son, Jacob (B2), seems to exclude him from the question. The next son was Thomas Theuniszen (B5). He and his wife, Rymerick, lived in the neighborhood of Kingston, Ulster County, and all their children were bp. in the Kingston Church; hence it is hardly plausible to think they would be the parents of Jacobus and not have him bp. at Kingston. Moreover, the marriage record of Jacobus states he was b in New Amsterdam. In a notation above it shows that Dirck was living in Westchester Towne in 1698. This is almost a suburb of New York City. His earlier children were bp. at N. Y., but why Thomas and Jacobus were not also bp. there is unknown. The discovery of Dirck's death between 1698 (when he took oath of allegiance at or near N. Y.), and 1702, when Thomas was apprenticed as the "son of Dirck Quick, deceased," and the record that Jacobus was b in N. Y., all seem to indicate that Jacobus was another unrecorded son of Dirck. Besides, Dirck was living in New York and was named a Justice of the Peace at a Convention in the City Hall 4 Sept. 1689.

- + C 45 JACOBUS QUICK (B7), "j.m., b in New York, and FRAN. CESCA CONSALUS-DUK, j.d., b in Marbletown, both residing in Rochester," banns reg. 11 May, m 2 June 1718 (KM 389). She was b 11 Sept. 1697, dau. of Manuel van Salis-duk and Marritje Christopher Davids, his wife. Jacobus was b abt. 1697, and is thought to be another unrecorded son of Dirck Quick (B7). They had 8 chil.—[D 91-98].

In the Will of Jacobus Quick, dated 24 April 1777, proved 16 Jan. 1782, he states: "I leave to my oldest son, Jacobus, all my horses, cows, sheep, wagons, slays, bed and bedding. To my daughter Johanna £40.: to my daughter Majers £80; to my daughter Elizabeth £60, provided she takes the two bonds of her son out of her share; to my son Petrus £200; to my son Jacobus all my land yet unsold, also my Bible and my pots, tongs, shovel and hand irons, 1 cloth coat, jacket and breeches, and my beaver hat. To my grandson, Jacob Quick, my gun. Executors: my sons Jacobus and Petrus." (NYW. 9:249). Sons, Gerardus and Zamuel, and daughter Rebecca, are not mentioned.

"D"—FOURTH GENERATION

D 1 ABRAHAM QUICK (C12), bap. N.A.D. Ch. 26 Oct. 1682 (PCD 155). He became a member of the N.A.D. Ch. 18 Feb. 1735. No further records found.

+ D 2 JACOBUS QUICK (C12), bap. 9 Jan. 1684 in N.A.D. Ch. (BDC160); d 23 Aug. 1741. He 1st m MARYTJE SMITH 4 May 1707, "both of N. Y.; both single" (MDC 106). He m 2nd, "Jacobus Quick, widower," to HEYLTJE CLOPPER, dau. of Cornelius Clopper, 23 March 1737 (MDC 161). The license dated 21 Mar. 1736-7. She d 1 Apr. 1774 (DDC), leaving 3 chil.—[E 9-10].

In 1674 a list of owners of houses in New Amsterdam shows Cornelis Clopper owned property valued at $10,000. on west side of present Pearl St., between Franklin Sq. and Wall St., then known as Smith's Valley—(Valentine's Hist. N. Y., p. 319).

The Will of Jacobus Quick (1684-1741), a son of Cornelius Jacobsen Quick (C12), dated 15 Jan. 1740-1, proved 1 Dec. 1741, states that he is a cordwainer (in the shoemaking business). He mentions his first wife, Marytje Smith, and leaves a legacy to each of his chil. by her. States that his second wife, Heyltje Clopper, is to have her portion according to a marriage contract made 22 March, 1737; balance of his estate to be distributed among all his children. Names as executors, "my wife and my cousins, John Roosevelt, Cornelius Clopper and John Stephens"—(NYHS Wills, 3:348). His house stood at the corner of Pearl St. and Hanover Square, where the Grace Building now stands.

D 3 SAERTIE QUICK (C12), bap. N.A.D. Ch. 22 Feb. 1686 (BDC172). We find the simple record: "Sara Kwik of N. Y., and Abraham Moll, m 16 Nov. 1702" (MDC98).

(widower), b at Magagkemeg" (Min. 272). M. by Anthony Van Etten, J. P. She had 5 chil.:

1. Zara Dekker, bap. 30 June 1723 (K3130);

4. Debora Dekker, bap. 3 May 1743 (Min. 105);
5. Johannes Van Aken Dekker, bap. 29 Mar. 1747 (Min. 112).

- D 5 CORNELIS QUICK (C12), bap. 19 May 1689 (BDC 191). No further records found. He may have emigrated to Maryland, Virginia, or Carolina with other Dutchmen—(See C-43).
- D 6 REBECCA QUICK (C12), bap. 3 Jan. 1692 (BDC 206); "REBECCA KWIK of N. Y. and JAN ESTRY, m 1 May 1709" (MDC 110).
- + D 7 FRANS (Francis) QUICK (C12), bap. 24 Nov. 1695 (BDC 231); d Feb. 1777. Name of his wife is not known, and she probably d before 1772, the date of his Will, as she is not mentioned. It names his 5 sons and 3 daus. and 3 daus. of son Francis, deceased [E11-18].
- Frans was a private in 5th Company of Col. Thomas Farmar's Regiment in 1715. (Col. Farmar was of New Brunswick, N. J.) (Proc. NJHSoc. 13:206.)
- + D 8 THEUNIS QUICK (C12), bap. 21 Aug. 1698 (BDC 253); d Jan. or Feb. 1774; m CATHERINE, who d in 1786.
- His Will, proved 16 Feb. 1774, names his wife Catherine, and at her death the farm and mill to be sold and the money to be given to the children: 2 sons and 3 daus. [E 21-25].
- He lived in Amwell Twp., Hunterdon Co., N. J., between Ringoes and Reaville, on the "Old York Road"—the East and West Indian Path.
- Mrs. Mame L. Blackwell of Ringoes has old deeds showing he owned the Dawlis Mills below Ringoes, and the land on which stood the old hotel at Larison's Corners, and as far as the Williamson plantation. The mill was near Ringoes, not the Crofts Mill on the mountain, and Theunis bought it 13 July 1761 for £52:10 from Gershom Mott.
- + D 9 JOHANNES QUICK (C12), bap. 26 Jan. 1701 (BDC 273), d 1771, m WILLIAMPIA KENNEY, dau. of Adrian and Charity Kenney of Amwell. He lived in Kingwood, Hunterdon Co., N. J., on his farm. His Will, proved 23 Nov. 1771, names his wife, Williampia, and 2 sons, Cornelis, the oldest, and John; also dau. Hannah and 5 others that were not named in the Will [E 31-33].
- + D 10 PETRUS QUICK (C12), bap. 6 Jan. 1704 (BDC 296), m ELIZABETH JOHNSON of Somerset Co. The Will of Nicholas Lake of Somerset, 23 Aug. 1768, names "Petrus Kuyk the husband of my granddaughter, Elizabeth Johnson, dau. of my dau. Eleanor (Lake) Johnson." Col. Abraham Quick (E64) was named executor. They had 5 sons [E 41-45].
- D 11 GRIETJE QUICK (C14), bap. 8 Feb. 1691 in N.A.D. Ch. (BDC 201). Wit.: Cornelis Quick (C12) and Grietje Cozyns, and Gerritje Quick (C13). She d young; not mentioned in her father's Will in 1739.
- + D 12 JACOBUS THEUNISZEN QUICK (C14), bap. 11 Dec. 1692 in N.A.D. Ch. (BDC 211). Wit.: Jacobus deKey, Belitje Quick (C11). He m 16 June 1717 SARA ROSEBOOM in N.A.D. Ch. (MDC 127). He d 1773; Sara d 8 June 1759 (DDC); both int. N.A.D. Ch.—(Holl. Soc. Year Book 1899). They had 7 children [E 51-57].

Jacobus Quick (1692-1773), in 1720 or 1730, owned a farm on the south side of the Raritan River in Hillsboro Twp., Somerset County, where the first school was built. Among other interests he was engaged in the leather and tanning business, and 1 Oct. 1765, when he was made a "Freeman" in New York, he is designated as a tanner (NYHS Coll. 1885, p. 201). He probably made his home in New York.

"Den 14 Feb. 1719, Neeltie Quik, and Sara Roseboom, h.v. Jacobus Quik, became members N.Y.D. Church, and Jacobus Quik den 26 May 1719, and his daughter, Annatje Quik, den 19 August 1745."

Jacobus Theuniszen Quick had children baptized at intervals 1718 to 1737 in N.A.D. Church (Holl. Soc. Year Book 1896, p. 198).

Jacobus, with Richard Snedeker and Andrew Marschalk, witnessed the Will of William Bogert of N. Y., carpenter, 8 Nov. 1755. Will describes house and lot, as sold in 1762, as "bounded West by Broad St., East by land of Andrew Gautier, North by lot of Nicholas Anthony, South by lot of Jacobus Quick" (D-12). The house and lot of Jacobus Quick (Lot no. 47) was sold by his heirs to Joseph Weeks 5-1-1834, with a 3-story brick house, for $20,000. It was 21 ft. 7 in. wide (N. Y. Wills, vol. 6:189-190).

Will of Hermanus Rutgers of N. Y., brewer, left a large estate, especially the large "Rutgers East Farm." Mentions his new house and lot as part of his lands fronting Queen St., in the East Ward, between the house and ground of Elbert Harrings and that of Jacobus Quick (D-12), running back to Rutgers St. He was one of the most prominent men in N. Y. (N. Y. Wills, vol. 4:445-6-7).

D 13 NEELTJE QUICK (C14), bap. 17 Mar. 1695 in N.A.D. Ch. Wit.: Theunis Donivan, Maria Quick (C12) (BDC 225), m 21 May 1737 in N.A.D. Ch. (MDC 161) to JOHN FURMAN (Thurman); m license 20 May 1737 (NYM:311). She d 12 Oct. 1764 (DDC:199).

D 14 JAN QUICK (C14), bap. 13 June 1697 in N.A.D. Ch., wit.: Jacobus Cornelisse, Gerretje Quick (C13), h.v.v. Leendert deGraw (BDC:245). He perhaps died young, as he is not mentioned in his father's Will in 1739; however, he was a wit. at bap. of Jenneke Kwik (E54) 15 Nov. 1725 and was then 28 yrs. old.

+ D 15 THEUNIS QUICK (C14), bap. 11 Feb. 1700 in N.A.D. Ch. (BDC 265); d in 1781. The name of his wife is not known. They had 3 daus.: NEELTJE, SARAH and MARY, and one son, Col. ABRAHAM QUICK [E 61-64].

It is believed there was another son, HENDRIK QUICK, who d 19 Sept. 1818, aged 87, and was buried at Belle Mead—the same neighborhood as where the rest of the family lived. All our records indicate no other possibility. Hendrik was in the Revolutionary War; see Roll of Honor.

During his lifetime Teunis built a large, substantial colonial dwelling house on his large farm at Ten-Mile-Run, Franklin Twp., Somerset Co., N. J. This old homestead has been passed down thru his descendants, Col. Abraham Quick; Jacob Quick; his dau. Ann who m Martin S. Garretson; son, John M. Garretson; and now in 1942 the house is in excellent condition.

Will of Teunis Quick, "of the Province of East Jersey" (1700-1781), and codicil dated 2 March 1776; proved 13 Oct. 1781, makes no mention of his wife, evidently deceased. It leaves son Abraham all my blacksmith tools, clock, "silver tankard," and my farm. Daughters Neeltje, Sarah and Mary each £500. "Remainder of my estate, real and personal, in Somerset, Middlesex, or in the Province or City of New York, to be equally divided between my four children. Gives his grandson and namesake, Teunis Quick, his Negro boy, Will; and to granddaughter, Hannah (Antje?) Quick, my Negro gal, Sal."

D 16 JANNEKE QUICK (C14), bap. 18 Oct. 1702 in N.A.D. Ch. (BDC:286). Wit.: Leendert deGraw (C13) and Anneke Van Vorst. Not named in her father's Will: evidently d.y.

D 17 CORNELIS QUICK (C14), bap. 29 Apr. 1705 in N.A.D. Ch. (BDC:307). Wit.: Carste Lierse (B6) and Grietje Cozyns. No further records of him.

+ D 18 PETRUS QUICK (C14), bap. 2 Nov. 1707 in N.A.D. Ch. (BDC326); d 1768 or early 1769. He m MARIA GULICK, a granddaughter of Joakim Gulick, who came to America in 1653, settled first at Gravesend, L. I. He took the oath of Allegiance in 1687. Previous to 1717 he moved to Six-Mile-Run, Somerset Co., where he owned 330 acres lying on both sides of the Ten-Mile-Run brook. He had 2 sons, John and Peter Gulick, but it is not known which was the father of Maria.

Petrus Quick (1707-1868-9) m Maria Gulick and was a farmer in the vicinity of Harlingen, Somerset County, N. J., locally called Sowerland—Sauerland, being near the easterly foot of Sourland-Mt., and but a few miles east from the site of the recent country seat of Col. Lindbergh—the scene of the tragic kidnapping.

Harlingen church records of the early days were lost in some manner, but 1 November, 1770, records show that Maria, widow of Petrus (Peter), united with the Harlingen Reformed Church.

The Will of Petrus Quick, yeoman, dated 22 October, 1768, proved 23 February, 1769, gives his wife, Maria Gulick, the use of the home farm till son Peter is 21. It gives "son Tunis the farm where he lives, that I bought of Cornelis Van Arsdalen, also 50 acres of woodland along the line of Hendrik Harder." Gives "son Jochem the farm where he lives, that I bought of Peter Dumont." Gives "son Jacobus (James) the farm where he lives, that I bought of Robert Letts Hooper and Philip Kearney." Gives "son Peter, when he comes of age, the farm I live on, that I bought of Hendrik Hoogeland and John Jewel." Gives "daughters Vrowtye (Quick, ancestor of the present U. S. Senator Frederick Van Nuys, of Indiana), Geertye and Neeltie £500 each." Executors: Sons Teunis, Jochem and Jacobus, also "my cousin Abraham Quick"

(Colonel Abraham Quick, son of Theunis (D15). They had 8 children [E 81-88].

- D 19 ABRAHAM QUICK (C14), bap. 9 Apr. 1710 in N.A.D. Ch. (BDC 326); d 17 Oct. 1770; int. N.A.D. Ch. (DDC 186). In 1735 he is mentioned as a member of the N. A. Dutch Church (Record 60:283). He was in the cooperage business in New Amsterdam, or perhaps just across the river in N. J. "4 Oct. 1737 Abraham Quick, cooper, was made a 'Freeman' in New York" (CNYHS, 1885:132). The following references to Abraham Quick, as a witness to various Wills in New York, is supposed to refer to this same man; in fact there was at said times no other Abraham Quick in the vicinity of N. Y.: Abraham Quick witness, 15 Oct. 1743 (WNYHS, 11:122); Abraham Quick, witness, 4 May 1756 (WNYHS, 5:133); Abraham Quick, witness, 31 May 1763 (WNYHS, 7:296); Abraham Quick, witness, 13 May 1767 (WNYHS, 7:217); Abraham Quick, witness, 29 Dec. 1752 (WNYHS, 7:217).

The will of Abraham Quick (1710-1770), dated 22 Sept. 1770; proved 2 May 1771; "Weak in body." Names brothers Jacobus and Teunis, each to have one-third of his estate. Names "Tunis and Joachim, two of the sons of brother Petrus, deceased," as among the executors, they to share the remaining third. The wording of the Will leads to the belief that he had no family (WNYHS, 7:418-19).

- + D 41 RYMERICK QUICK (C33), bap. 4 Jan. 1702 (K:1283), m ALEXANDER MACKEY and had 9 chil. that were bap. at different places. That this Rymerick (dau. of Jurriaen Quick), m Alexander Mackey, and not her cousin-namesake, dau. of Teunis Quick, is proved by the sponsors: "Juige Quik Rebecca th wife Sponsors" at baptism 31 Oct. 1727 of their son "Willem ½ yr. old Alex Mekky Remerich Parents." This, as well as the baptism of two others of their children, was performed by a Lutheran minister in the absence of Rev. Joshua Kockerthal. The notation: "Baptized in the Hoogland on the West Side, at Burger Mynder's house," shows that this rite in those primitive days was not always performed at the church (Samuel Burhan's Coll. owned by NYGBSoc.).

Further evidence that this couple were of the household of Jurriaen and not of Teunis, is that "Alexander Mackey and Jurien Quick were enrolled as members of the Foot Company of the Military of the Precinct of the Highlands" (E. M. Ruttenber's "Newburgh," p. 273, and DHNY 4:237).

Alexander Mackey was a freeholder listed as a taxpayer in the Precinct of the Highlands, Ulster Co., N. Y., 1724-25-26-29.

- + E 5 ABIGAIL QUICK (D2), bap. 7 July 1718 (BDC:406); d 25 Jan. 1781 in Harlem. Records of N.A.D. Ch. show she became a member 21 Nov. 1738. She m 16 Mar. 1737, JOHN BOGERT, JR. (MDC:160, (NYM:311). He was bap. 3 Dec. 1718; d 5 Dec. 1782. They had 16 children, 4 dying in infancy [F1-10b].

John Bogert, Jr., was a distinguished and prosperous New York merchant. He served as an Alderman 1756 to 1766, and during the same period was a Deacon and Elder in the N. Y. Dutch Church.

12 March 1766 he bought a farm at Harlem in the northern part of Manhattan Island, on the Harlem River (John Benson's farm, lying on Van Keulens Hook, adjoining Harlem River), and retired from business, devoting his remaining years to husbandry. In 1776 when the Revolution broke out, the Provincial Congress, on leaving New York, met for a month in the church at Harlem, and John Bogert Jr., being a good Whig, the records were kept at his house, which stood at the foot of what is now 125th Street, on Harlem River.

The Will of “John Bogert, Jr., of the City of New York, gentleman” is in Vol. 12 of Wills, NYHS Coll. It is dated 4 April 1782, and its provisions indicate that he was a man of considerable means.

An item of the estate of John Bogert, Jr., is an ad in the N. Y. City Directory for 1786, p. 92:—“Cornelous J. Bogert [8th child of John and Abigail (Quick) Bogert], of 42 Beekman St., offers to sell or exchange for a house in town, that pleasant villa at Haerlem, late the property of John Bogert, deceased, about 8 miles from the city, containing 80 acres of land, a young orchard of several hundred apple trees, 10 acres of fresh and salt meadows, a garden with good fruit, a good dwelling house and a large barn. The premises extend along the East River, on the banks of which the house stands, commanding an agreeable prospect of the Sound and Long Island. Enough sea weed and sedge is thrown upon the shore to manure the land. It abounds with a great variety of fish and wild fowl in their seasons."

In 1656 a Dutch settlement was founded in the northern part of Manhattan Island and called Nieuw Haerlem, later known as Harlem. JAN LOUWE BOGERT, b in Holland, was the immigrant ancestor of the family. After living on Long Island for nine years he bought in 1672 the Montanye farm in Harlem, and with his wife Cornelia Everts made his home there. In 1706 he sold the farm and removed to New York. Of their 11 children, CLAES (Nicholas), the third child, was born at Bedford, Long Island, in 1668; m first Belettie Van Schaick, 28 June 1695, and had 4 children. He married second, Margaret Van Tilburg, 23 Feb. 1707, by whom he had 9 children. He lived in N. Y., was a baker and bolter; d 5 Jan. 1727.

The oldest child of Claes was Johannes (John) Bogert, b 1 May 1697, by trade a mason. He was an Alderman of N. Y. He m Hanna Peeck 10 Mar. 1716, and had 10 children. He d 7 Nov. 1775.

Second child of JOHANNES was JOHN BOGERT, JR. (1718-1782); m 16 Mar. 1737 ABIGAIL QUICK, as above stated.

Succeeding generations of the Bogert family, descendants of ABIGAIL QUICK, but showing only one in each generation, are: PETER BOGERT (1757-1838); m 1783 to MARY LAWRENCE (1766-1849);

She was a granddaughter of James Stout, the 5th son of Richard Stout and Penelope Van Princes, the common ancestors of the Stout family in America. Elizabeth was b 5 May 1734; d 3 Feb. 1826 in her 92nd year. John's Will, dated 13 Aug. 1808; proved 25 Feb. 1812, names his wife and all children except Ruth [F 101-7].

The story of the Stout family and Penelope Van Princes, as handed down in the Stout family, is that Richard Stout, the first of the name in America, came from Nottinghamshire, England, a son of John. Richard served for some years in the English navy and was finally discharged at the port of New Amsterdam, N. Y. About this time a ship from Holland, with many Dutch immigrants, was driven ashore during a severe storm, on the Jersey coast near Middletown, Monmouth Co. The crew and passengers reached shore safely, but were soon attacked by a band of Indians, who it is said, massacred the entire party. Among the passengers was Penelope Van Princes and her husband. The husband was killed outright, and Penelope, badly bruised, ripped open and unconscious, was left for dead. Recovering consciousness she crawled to a hollow tree for some protection and seclusion where she was discovered by a friendly Indian. Compassionately he carried her to his wigwam, nursed her back to life and eventually carried her in his canoe to New Amsterdam and sold her to the Dutch. Later, Penelope met and married Richard Stout in 1663, in N. Y. City, and settled in Monmouth County, N. J. The name of Penelope's father was Van Princes; her husband's name uncertain. (First publication of the story was in "Proceeds," 1st Series, vol. 1:162-3, pub. 1845-6.)

His Will, dated 17 Sept. 1787, proved 7 Feb. 1792, states he is of the Province of Virginia, names wife Elizabeth, names the six daughters, and two sons—Tunis and John. His oldest son, Moses, and youngest son, Isaac, were not mentioned in the Will but appear in the estate settlement as such. The Will was filed in Washington Co., Pa., in the S.W. corner of the state, where he must have been a land owner as well as in Va., now W. Va.; or the state boundaries may still have been in dispute, Virginia, claiming the country as far north as Pittsburgh [F 151-160].

Elizabeth Quimby was a dau. of Ephraim and Elizabeth Quimby of Amwell, Hunterdon County, N. J. Ephraim's other children were Phebe, Mary, Sarah, Filenah, Daniel, Samuel and Ephraim, Jr., as shown in his Will, dated 12 Aug. 1767; proved 25 Sept. 1767 (Lib. 14:90—NJW).

Considering the size of his family and their ages, this must have been the second marriage of Cornelius. They then immigrated to what was called Virginia, but really was in the S.W. corner of Penn., and in what is now called the "pan-handle" of West Va., and in Washington and Allegheny counties, Penn., and here the group owned various tracts, young Ephraim's farm being in Peters Twp., Washington County.

He lived on the old homestead of his father at Ten-Mile-Run, Franklin Twp., Somerset Co., besides being a large farm owner in other parts of this county and Middlesex. In 1778 he was Somerset County Judge. Note the original 4000-acre grant under B2.

E 65 HENDRIK QUICK (D15), who d 19 Sept. 1818, aged 87, as appears on the headstone in Belle Mead Cemetery (which is in the same neighborhood as the home of Col. Abraham and his father, Tunis). He may have been another son of Tunis, there being no other family to which he could plausably belong. (See "Revolutionary War Roll of Honor.")

+ E 81 TEUNIS QUICK (D18), b 24 July 1732. He m HELENA — as shown by the bap. records of 3 ch. bap. in the Six-Mile-Run Ch., 1755 to 1759, and 7 chil. in the Harlingen Ch., 1763 to 1774. He was a Somerset Co. farmer, near Six-Mile-Run [F 241-50].

+ E 82 JOACHIM QUICK (D18) was b at Harlingen, Somerset County, 23 July 1734, lived and died there on his farm, 6 April 1816, in his 82nd year. He and his wife, CATHERINE SNEDEKER, are buried in the nearby cemetery at Belle Mead. His name is spelled "Jocham" on the stone. Dec. 18, 1936, the Gen. Frelinghuysen Chapter, D.A.R., placed a bronze marker on the grave of this Revolutionary War soldier. CATHERINE SNEDEKER was b 19

Nov. 1739; d 30 Oct. 1815; they were married 1 Dec. 1757. She was a dau. of Isaac Snedeker, Jr. [F 271-7].

He enlisted and was chosen to serve as Ensign in Col. Peter D. Vroom's company of Minute Men, which was formed in May, 1775, at the home of Garret Garretson in Hillsboro Twp., Somerset Co. This small company of some 60 men were to be exercised twice a week and be ready to serve at a minute's notice, "an un-failing service rendered to the cause of American Independence." (See "Revolutionary War Roll of Honor.")

Two of his sons, who were old enough, were Privates in Capt. Vroom's Company, 2nd Battalion, Somerset County Militia (Stry., 727). They were Peter J. Quick (1758-1842-F271) and Garret J. Quick (1761-1821-F272). A tradition in the family is that Garret, at the Battle of Monmouth, was Washington's Aide and saw three horses shot under the General.

His Will, proved April 24, 1816, states that he has already distributed his real estate among his children, reserving only the farm he lived on. He had given each son a farm. The Will mentions his wife and his four sons by name. (No mention of a daughter Maria, yet her name appears in Snell's History and elsewhere. Mss. records of the Harlingen Church, in the Holland Society Library, give additional baptism records of this couple as Eysak (Isaac), 18 Feb. 1770; Marya, 22 Nov. 1773; Jacob, 21 March, 1779. The compiler finds no further mention of records of these names that can be verified as belonging to Joachim's family; they may have died young.)

During his lifetime, Joachim distributed his several farms among his sons, and it is believed that for a time he lived on the farm that he gave to his son, Abraham J. Quick, the same farm on the hill road on the west side of the South Branch River, between South Branch and Neshanic Station, that is still owned by the compiler and his brother—his great-great-grandsons. The adjoining farm on the south was at the same time owned by another son, Garret J. Quick, who handed it down to his son, Joachim G. Quick, who was the owner in 1816 and for some years after.

His wife, Catherine Snedeker, united with the Harlingen Church 24 Oct. 1766, and Joachim was a member of the Consistory of that church, 24 Apr. 1788, becoming a church member 23 May, 1787, and owned pews Nos. 6 and 19. 15 Jan. 1750, the Consistory and members of the congregation of "over the Millstone" (river), also known as Sowerland, resolved to build a church. This was completed in 1752, and 23 Nov. the committee laid down rules for the occupation of pews (seats). Later it was known as the Harlingen Church.

Tunis G. Bergen's "History of the Bergen Family" gives the following outline of the Snedeker family:

Jan Snedeker was the common ancestor of the Snedeker family in America. A patent for a double lot south of the Fort on Manhattan Island was granted him and dated July, 1645. He was in this country as early as 1640, a shoemaker by trade, kept a tavern in New Amsterdam in 1642, and finally settled in Flatbush, where he resided in 1654, owned and cultivated a farm. He was a delegate to the Flatbush Convention in 1664; was Magistrate of Midwout, 1654 to 1658, and 1660, 1661, 1663 and 1664. Died in 1679.

2nd gen.—Garret Snedeker of Flatbush, son of Jan, married Elsie Teunis, daughter of Teunis Nyssen or Denyse. Teunis Nyssen, or Denyse, emigrated as early as 1638 from Bininck or Bennekin, a village near Arnheim in the Province of Gilderland, in the Netherlands. He died prior to August, 1663.

According to the records of the N.Y.D. Ch., Teunis Nyssen, or Denyse, married, 11 Feb. 1640, Phabea Faelix of Jarleston, England, who is known on other records as the widow of Hendrik the boor, who may have used the surname of Faelix. Fabea, or Femmetje, was the daughter of John Seals, who married Maria Roberts, or Robertson. John Seals was an Englishman from Devonshire (the name being written Jan Celes on the Dutch colonial records), who came from New England as early as 1638 to New Amsterdam, on which date he was a planter on Manhattan Island.

Teunis Nyssen, or Denyse, and Phabea Faelix had eight children, some of which took the name Denyse. Two of his sons, Cornelis and Jan, settled on the Raritan River near Somerville, Somerset County, N. J., and whose descendants retain the surname of Tunison instead of that of Denyse. Another son, Droujse Teunis, headed the Denyse family of N. J. Following are the children of Teunis Nyssen and Femmetje Seals, his wife:

- (1) Jannetje Teunis, bp. 24 Dec. 1641, m Jan Hansen Bergen.
- (2) Marratje Teunis, bp. 3 Apr. 1644, m Derick Janse Wortman.
- (3) Aerlje Teunis.

- (6) Femmetje Teunis, bp. 3 Apr. 1650, m Michael Hansen Bergen.
- (7) Dianys Teunis, bp. 12 Apr. 1654, m 1st, 27 Oct. 1682, Elizabeth, daughter of Theodorus Polhemus; m 2nd, 12 Aug. 1685, Helena, dau. of Jacques Cortelyou and widow of Claes Nicholas Van Brunt.
- (8) Jan Teunis, bp. 12 Apr. 1654, m 16 Nov. 1679, Catalyntje Teunisen, dau. of Tunis Gystbertse Bogaert and Sarah Rapalia, who was the widow of Hans Hansen Bergen.
- (9) Cornelis Teunis, bp. 23 Mar. 1687, m Neeltje Teunis; also a dau. of Tunis Gystbertse Bogaert and Sarah Rapalia.

As stated above, Jan (8) and Cornelis (9), both settled near Somerville.

Tunis Nyssen resided in Brooklyn in 1658 and 1661, and was a magistrate of said town. Femmetje Seals, his wife, died prior to 1663.

3rd gen.—Isaac Snedeker, of New Lotts, son of Gerret Sne-deker and Elsje Teunis (5), his wife, m Catalyntje Janse—"Our Home," p. 505).

4th gen.—Isaac Snedeker, Jr., of Six-Mile-Run, N. J., was at that place in 1717. He was a son of Isaac Snedeker of New Lotts and Catalyntje Janse, who was bp. 16 Jan. 1681 at Flatbush, L. I., and grandson of Gerret Snedeker, and great-grandson of Jan Snedeker, who was in New Amsterdam as early as 1640, a shoemaker by trade, keeping a tavern in 1642, and finally farmed in Flatbush, where he died in 1679.

Isaac Snedeker, Jr., of Six-Mile-Run (name of wife not known), probably had three sons, Isaac, Jan and Jacob as bap. in the Harlingen Church as early as 1750, besides a daughter, CATHERINE SNEDEKER, b or bap. 19 Nov. 1739, who m JOACHIM QUICK (E82).

As indicated in the following will, Isaac Snedeker, Jr., must have had two other daughters besides Catherine; i.e., the wife of Cornelius Van Henglen of Middlebush, and Elsy, wife of Ouke Reynirse:

Will of "Ouke Reynirse of near Millstone, Somerset County," dated 20 Sept. 1777, proved 9 April 1779. Names wife, Elyse; "sons, Reyneer, Garret, Barent, Isaac, John, Jacob, Christopher and Jochem, and only daughter, Gaertye, when they are 21." Executors: "My brothers-in-law, Cornelius Van Henglen of Middlebush, and Jochem Quick (E82) of Sowerland"—(NJW Lib. 21:55, vol. 5).

As a boy William Bross picked up what education he could locally, but ambitious for more, and with a borrowed dollar in his pocket, he struck out alone and afoot across the mountains and marshes for Williams College, Massachusetts. Here he worked his way through college, graduated in 1834, and taught in an academy in Pittsfield 1834 to 1843. Going to Chicago he became associated with a man named Scripps and together they founded the "Democratic Press," of which he was editor until 1858. They then amalgamated this paper with Medill's Tribune, calling it "The Democratic Press and Tribune," of which he was editor for ten years and President of the Tribune Company. With Medill, who nominated Lincoln for the Presidency, he became interested in politics and became Lieutenant-Governor of Ill., 1865-1869. In this capacity in the absence from the state of Governor Yates, he was the first signer, on behalf of any State, of the Thirteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States. He was one of the pall bearers at the funeral of Abraham Lincoln. On the day after the great Chicago Fire (year 1871), he left for New York to raise funds to rebuild the city, which mission he successfully accomplished.

She was b 22 Oct. 1780 at Roxbury, N. J.; d 18 Jan. 1860. Both buried R. D. Cemetery near Slaterville Springs, Tomkins Co. They had 9 chil.—[F761-9].

Henry Quick emigrated from Ulster Co. westward to Caroline, Tomkins Co. N. Y. in 1804. His brother Jacob went with him, but returned later to Ulster. Henry's only capital when he came to Caroline was an ax and one shilling in money, but his indomitable courage gradually won out. He bought 100 acres of land and a little later added another 160. Dec. 24, 1806, he married Sallie Earsley (by the Rev. Garrett Mandeville), dau. of the widow Mary (Johnson) Earsley, who came from N. J. in 1794 with her ten children and made the first pioneer settlement in Caroline. This is about ten miles south of Ithaca, which is at the foot (south end) of Cayuga Lake.

The widow Earsley came from Roxbury, N. J., on horseback in the summer of 1794, bought 100 acres of land at three dollars an acre, and returned home as she came. In the spring of 1795 she came with her family of ten children, her oldest son having in the meantime built a log cabin. In 1924 a granite boulder with bronze tablet was erected to her memory just outside the village of Caroline as the first pioneer settler. This was done by her many descendants in this section. Henry Quick and his descendants have been largely identified with the development of Tomkins County by their influence and enterprise. Henry and his wife resided near Central Chapel until their deaths, and both are buried in the R.D. cem. near Slaterville Springs.

Maria Quick, who married Cornelius Cox, was left with limited means at his death, but somehow she managed to give her two daughters superior educations that enabled them to teach the higher branches in southern seminaries until their marriages.

Maria Louise Cox married first a Mr. Kimball, Principal of a school, who died of consumption soon after. Later she married John R. Kenan, a wealthy Alabama cotton merchant. He was one of the State Commissioners chosen to pass on the question of seceding from the Union. His vote was in the minority and the state seceded with the other southern states. At the close of the Civil War he was moneyless. Rallying to his assistance, his good helpmeet threw her past teaching experience into the breach and opened a Seminary for both day and boarding students, teaching only the higher branches. Although the entire south was in desperate straits financially, there seemed to be money hidden away somewhere, for her school was at once a success, clearing her $3,500 in two years. This money she insisted he must use to get back on his financial feet again. Fortunately, it turned out as she expected, but he chivalrously maintained that the credit all belonged to his wife.

+ G 261 ABRAHAM S. QUICK (F152), b 9 Mar. 1808 in Pa.; d at Nashville, Mich., in 1893, aged 84; m 1838, RACHEL LAPHAM of Maple Grove. She was b 20 July, 1823, at Collins, Erie Co., N. Y.; dau. of Eli Lapham, a Quaker preacher, of Maple Grove. She d 1904 at Nashville, Mich. They resided on their farm at Maple Grove, Barry Co., Mich. Abraham was one of the early settlers in Barry County, Mich. He built the first barn and chopped three miles of road through the woods towards Hastings. He arrived in Maple Grove Twp. in 1839 and erected a sawmill on Sec. 26, owned by John Mott, a Quaker of Jackson Co., with whom the mill was to be worked on shares. Two years later he located on Sec. 34 on 160 acres. Later they removed to Nashville, Mich., where Abraham died in 1893 and Rachel in 1904. It is said that Abraham had a sister, Nancy, who married James Cole [H571-4].

+ G 271 AARON QUICK (F160), b 21 Mar. 1778 (or Oct. 19) in N. J.; d 21 Mar. 1830 in St. Clair Co., Ill.; m 9 Dec. 1800, LACY PRESTON of Va., dau. of David and Ann (Rigdon) Preston; b 1 Dec. 1780; d 13 Sept. 1844 in St. Clair Co. Aaron settled near Belleville, St. Clair Co., in 1809, where he bought 1000 acres and engaged in farming. He was one of the first school teachers in the County, and was County Commissioner in 1814, when the County seat was moved from Cohokia to Belleville. 9 children [H601-9].

G 272 MOSES QUICK (F160), b 24 Nov. 1786 in N. J.; m 11 Dec. 1811. He was of an adventurous type and was engaged in numerous enterprises. He owned a farm and mill near Belleville on Richland Creek, and a farm adjoining. It is said this mill ground the first flour manufactured in St. Clair Co. He shipped 200 bbls. of flour from this mill to New Orleans in 1816. The following advertisement appeared in the "Mo. Gazette" and "Ill. Advertiser" on Apr. 27, 1816: "For Sale—A sawmill now in full plight and equal, if not superior, to any in the territory, and a Grist Mill, partly built, which can be put into operation at a small expense. Also 167 acres of well timbered land one mile from Belleville, Illinois Territory." The records show that mill and land were sold for $3,000 to Major Washington West.

In 1811, Moses Quick built a boat on the Kaskaskia River opposite the present site of New Athens, Ill. In March following, he floated it laden with meat, corn, furs, and the like, down the Kaskaskia River and Mississippi River to New Orleans. This was the first boat, except Indian canoes, to be floated on the Kaskaskia River above Levens. Moses returned to Illinois from New Orleans on horseback. He was a member of the early Militia for protection against the Indians. He dealt in live stock and after the sale of his mills and land he moved to Mississippi, where he engaged in steamboat navigation and is said to have become prosperous. We have no data of his wife or descendants.

Joakim G. Quick (1784-1860) in 1816 owned the farm adjoining the south side of the farm of his uncle Abraham J. Quick (F274), (great-grandfather of the writer and whose farm passed down from father to son and is now owned by the writer and his brother). It is believed this farm was given him by his father, Garret, and that Garret may have lived there, and that it was one of the farms that his grandfather Joachim (E82) gave to each of his sons.

He was not a politician, though from 1829 to 1831 he was a member of the Hillsboro Township Committee, and from 1832 to 1836 he was a member of the county Board of Freeholders.

The Millstone Ref. Church records show that between 1832 and 1855 he served as Deacon and Elder in that church. He was also a builder and in 1827-28 built the Millstone Reformed Church for $6000., and the lumber from the old church. With this lumber he built a substantial barn on his farm as Woods Tavern, near Millstone, where he lived from around 1827 until his death in 1860. Nothing but the best of material and workmanship went into this church and today it is standing in apparently as good condition as when built in 1828. Mounted on top of the steeple of the old church was a weather-vane — a large wooden rooster that revolved with the wind on a vertical iron rod. During the Revolutionary War, when the Hessians raided Millstone they shot two bullet holes directly through the body of the old rooster, holes that remain today as a mute memento of the war. This weather vane adorned the old barn for 100 years, and until December 1928, when, at the celebration of the centennial of the building, the old rooster was "loaned permanently" to the church and now stands in the chapel of the church with other historical exhibits. The actual building of the edifice was done by Capt. Isaac Van Nuys, an expert carpenter, his assistant, Isaac Cornell, father-in-law of the Rev. Bergen Brokaw Staats (son of Susannah Staats Quick [H1209] and Peter Staats), and other carpenters. It fell to the lot of Isaac Cornell to climb this tall steeple, stand on the summit of the spire, and pass the historic bird up over the rod, a perilous job.

A part of the lumber from the old church, Joachim G. Quick used in the construction of the "Old Covered Bridge" that crosses the South Branch of the Raritan River at South Branch village.

This he built in 1828, so substantial a structure that it did service for much over 100 years and when recently torn down to make way for a concrete bridge it was still in excellent condition. A photo of the "Old Covered Bridge" is shown in this book. The only other covered bridge in Somerset County was at Montgomery, west of Neshanic, built at about the same time, and recently torn down. There is still one other covered bridge in existence—known as Green Sergeants Bridge, west of Flemington in Hunterdon County, between Sergeantsville and Rosemont, built in 1840 and still in good condition.

SCHENCK, farmer of Neshanic, b 2 Jan. 1823; d 8 June, 1905, at Neshanic. John was a Republican and member of the N. J. Assembly, 1861-1863 and 1871-1873, and a member of the N. J. Senate, 1879-1881. He was the fifth of six chil. of Gilbert and Rachel (Van Liew) Schenck, who was the 9th of the 11 chil. of Capt. John and Adah (Sutphen) Schenck. The body of Captain John Schenck rests in Pleasant Ridge Cemetery near Larisons Corner, on the Old York Road, between Larison's and Reaville, a few miles from Flemington, Hunterdon Co., N. J., marked with a bronze plaque, to commemorate his courage and foresight on December 14, 1776, that saved that part of the county from being overrun by British troops.

Captain Schenck, who participated in the Battle of Monmouth, served with the Third Regiment of Hunterdon County Militia from 1775 to 1783. A farmer and prominent citizen of the vicinity of Larisons Corner, he was at home on leave in December of 1776, before the Christmas Night Battle of Trenton, when neighbors spread the alarm that mounted British soldiers were heading for Flemington. This advance guard of light-horsemen was part of a detachment of 500 that were engaged in plundering the countryside around Trenton. At Flemington they destroyed or carried away army supplies, and while so engaged Captain Schenck mustered the few available men and arms in the neighborhood and assembled them in the woods along the road near Larisons, where they surprised the British returning to Trenton. The "Historical Collections of New Jersey" thus describe the skirmish:

The Americans poured in a fire upon them, each man taking to a tree, or running from tree to tree, while the Captain, shouting at the top of his voice, gave the impression of his being at the head of a considerable army. The one man to fall in the encounter was their leader, Cornet Francis Geary, of the 16th Regiment, Queen's Light Dragoons, who lost his life while attempting to rally his men. He was a son of Admiral Sir Francis Geary, Baronet of the British Navy. The Hunterdon County Historical Society has a copy of the letter of sympathy written by Lord Cornwallis to Admiral Geary on the death of his son.

This clever deception by Captain Schenck, combined with the sudden surprise, soon put the British to flight, and no further pillage was reported, except the robbing of children on the way to school to get their dinners. The main body of 500, apprised that the woods were full of Americans, hastened back to Trenton.

The Captain's tombstone, standing beside that of his wife, is inscribed: "In memory of Captain John Schenck, who departed this life August 22, 1823, aged 73 years, 2 months and 27 days."

Having after his resignation passed a short time in retirement he accepted a call to the Rectorship of Hertzog Hall, New Brunswick, which he held from 1869 until 1874. This was then the only building of the Seminary, and he also had charge of building and grounds. In 1874 he became Librarian of the newly erected Sage Library of the Seminary. In this he continued until the 9th of October (or November), 1886, when he died at the age of 80. He was a power in his own pulpit and among his own people, but his reserve and diffidence, when preaching before other people, seemed like self-depreciation. Refined in every thought and habit, he was a scholar and sermonizer of more than common merit, and a hard-working pastor. The "Christian Intelligencer," at the time of his death, spoke highly of him, and intimated a certain timidity among strangers. Rev. Dr. Oscar M. Voorhees of New Brunswick, in a letter to the author, tells me he recalls seeing him when visiting the Sage Library, and that he was a man of dignity.

Clarkstown was then a mere hamlet 7 miles north of Tappan Church, near Haverstraw, N. Y.

July 23, 1836, he married MARY AGNEW. We are unable to get much information concerning his wife, but certain of the older Rutgers men assure the writer that his wife was living, at least for some time, while in New Brunswick. Also, that he had an adopted daughter to whom he gave an oil portrait of his grandparents, Capt. Jacobus Quick and Margaret Stryker, that he had purchased from a cousin named Voorhees. (The author has a photograph of this painting.)

A Mr. MacLane was guardian of Eliza and her sister after death of her father, Rev. John Bowring, and he sold their portion of the Westchester Co. property to the State of N. Y., where Sing Sing Prison now stands. Eliza's cousin, Sir John Bowring, was a highly educated Englishman, and the author of many books and translations; and also author of many hymns that are found in the English Hymnals and also in the current hymnals of our American churches. Among them we found

"Thou, Whose Almighty Word Chaos and darkness heard,"

found in the English hymnal, set to the music of "Come, Thou Almighty King"—"Written by Sir John Bowring (1792-1872)"—(Chicago Tribune, 10 May, 1936).

Also, appearing in current hymnals:

"In the Cross of Christ I glory, Towering o'er the wrecks of time."

(Sir John Bowring—1825.)

Also, "Watchman, tell us of the night,
What its signs of promise are."

Also, "God is Love, his mercy brightens
All the path in which we rove."

Sir John was a man of letters, author and poet. He was the first editor of "The Westminster Review."

Isaac Purdy Quick and Ike Bailey, both young fellows, unmarried, heard in some way that an elephant was being shipped to America, the first elephant to be imported here. They at once got together a nice roll of money, went to New York City, chartered a boat, and went down the Bay to meet the incoming ship. Driving a bargain with the owner, they bought the elephant, named her "Old Betsey," and then went about the country exhibiting her. Later other animals were added to the collection and were wintered at their headquarters in an old barn in their home town at Somers, Westchester Co., N. Y. Later the firm became Quick, Bailey & Finch, Isaac P. Quick becoming their advance agent, riding horseback from Somers all over the country and as far as New Orleans. "Old Betsey," the first elephant in the U. S. A., now has, as a memorial, a small wooden elephant mounted on a wrought-iron pedestal at the main crossroads in the town of Somers, opposite the White Elephant Inn. Rev. Louis Bowring Quick, a grandson of Isaac, relates that Isaac finally tired of the roving life, sold out his interests and used the money to buy 225 acres of Croton River Valley farm land. He had a very nice old home—his father's homestead, just east of Somers, and the old brass door-plate is still on the front door, although the property is now owned by strangers. Most of this land is now submerged by the great reservoir between Purdys and Croton Falls—a part of New York City's water supply. Mr. William Bailey, a present resident of Somers, Westchester Co., writes the author that his father was not a son of Hackaliah ("Ike") Bailey, but a cousin. This first American animal show later developed into the great Barnum & Bailey Menagerie. (Bolton's Hist. of Westchester, Vol. II.) "Somers.—These zoological exhibitions that annually tour the country originated in Somers through the enterprise of Hackaliah Bailey and Isaac Purdy Quick (G705), who imported the celebrated elephant, 'Old Betsey,' the first ever brought to United States—about 1815. Their animal collection was later absorbed and enlarged by others. In 1848 the proprietors were Messrs. Thaddeus and Gerard Crane, who were associated with the great lion-tamer—Van Amburgh." Joseph F. Bailey (H1508) and Gerald C. Quick (1811-1869) (G835), a bachelor, of Somers, were also associated with them for a number of years. Dr. Samuel Barnum, a surgeon in Rev. War, was a resident of the same town, and he may have been grandfather of the famous P. T. Barnum, who later joined the show.

Member First Presbyterian Church of Orange; lives in West Orange, N. J., 5 Riggs Place. A very good friend of the writer and when casually informed that the Institute of American Genealogy had conferred a Fellowship upon the writer and the degree of F.I.A.G., he took advantage of the opportunity to present his congratulations in the following original language (not Dutch):

Not the size of the hat, nor the way it is worn,
Nor the head that is thus fitly crowned;
But in man's fertile brain, where ideas are born,
Is the true measure of worth to be found.

Not the size of the glove, nor the way that it fits,
Nor the shape of the hand thus concealed;
But in the warm friendship the hand-clasp transmits,
The size of the man is revealed.

Nor is it the way that a fellow is dressed—
It matters not how spick and span;
But the heart, that goes "pit-a-pat" under the vest,
Reveals the true worth of the man.

So I take off my hat to my cousin, renowned,
As a genealogical sleuth;
And "here is my hand"—in which friendship is found,
And cousinly love:—That's the Truth!

ARTHUR C. QUICK AND HIS WIFE—CATHERINE V. STRYKER, AND DAUGHTERS. 1-1428

MEMORIAL TRIBUTE

Among God's many blessings I count as greatest the daily companionship, over half a century, the inspiration, the love and unselfish devotion, the quiet uplifting Christian influence of my dear wife — bereft of hearing, racked with pain, yet showing no resentment or impatience, and holding firmly to the end her faith in God.

—ARTHUR CRAIG QUICK.

CATHERINE VAN NEST STRYKER was b 22 Aug. 1864 in Somerset Co.; d 13 Sept. 1935, aged 71 years, at their summer home at Palisades Park, Mich. At rest in Lake View cemetery, South Haven, Mich.

Soon after their marriage they came to Elgin, Illinois, where they lived for 24 years, then removed to Chicago, and later to South Haven. Purchasing a tract of several hundred acres of well-wooded dunelands fronting on Lake Michigan, six miles south of South Haven, and 120 miles from Chicago, he spent some years in developing this tract—which he named Palisades Park—as an exclusive summer home community. Miles of fine gravelled roads have been built, an artificial lake of 12 acres, hotels, club house, tennis and golf grounds, 150 dwellings of the better sort, stores, telegraph, telephone and electric services, and artesian water piped everywhere. As a landscape engineer he laid out and subdivided the tract as a large private park, conserving all its wildness and native beauty, with special attention to the unusual botanical features of these dunelands with its 375 species of native wild flowers. There is perhaps no other place in America in this latitude where so many species of wild flowers may be found. Long a close student of botany he wrote and published a book — “Wild Flowers of the Northern States and Canada,” acknowledged as a most complete wild flower book as to the many curious habits, traits and characteristics of many species, a subject quite overlooked by most writers, but here studied and noted in their native haunts. Other books: — “How to Naturalize the Native Wild Flowers” and “How to Naturalize the Hardy Native Orchids.” The “Dunes Highway,” US-31, running from Chicago to the Straits at Mackinac, keeping as near the lake shore as possible, is considered one of the most beautiful drives in America. It skirts the inland boundaries of Palisades Park.

In later years the compiling of this Genealogy of the Quick Family became Arthur Quick's most interesting hobby. He is a member of the Holland Society of New York, the New York Genealogical and Biographical Society, and a Fellow of the American Institute of Genealogy, with degree F.I.A.G. They had two children. [J-1219-20].

His second marriage was on 30 Sept. 1939 to Miss Kittie M. Wisson, of Elgin, Ill., b 4 Jan. 1866 at Simcoe, Ontario, daughter of John and Deborah Caroline (Ward) Wisson. The ceremony took place in the First M. E. Church of Chicago, by the pastor, Rev. John Thompson, D.D. Both are Congregationalists. They live at Palisades Park, Mich., but in South Haven, Mich., the colder half of the year.

Brother Reames has good reason to be justly proud of his ancestry. His grandparents were Silas Reames and Polly Phillips, his great-grandfather was Aaron Reames of Eastern Ohio, who married a daughter of Col. Ebenezer Zane, founder of Zanesville, Ohio, and one of the heroes of the Indian attack on Fort Henry, at what is now Wheeling in the panhandle of W. Va., on the Ohio River. Colonel Ebenezer was the oldest son of Noah Zane, a Danish exile of aristocratic lineage, who crossed the Atlantic with William Penn and was associated with him in the founding of Philadelphia. He later removed to Berkeley County, Va., on the Potomac, where his sons were born—Col. Ebenezer, Jonathan, Capt. Silas, Isaac, and one daughter, Betty Zane. Led by Ebenezer, the rest of the family later settled on the Ohio River and built Fort Henry, a frontier blockhouse on a wild rocky promontory high above the Ohio, at a point near the mouth of Wheeling Creek. Here was fought one of the last battles of the Revolutionary War, Sept. 11, 1782, between a band of British, who had allied with them a number of bands of hostile Indians of Ohio and Western Pennsylvania. The little garrison at the fort, besides the Zane brothers and neighboring settlers with a few colonial soldiers, was no doubt supplemented by some of the sons and son-in-laws of Cornelius Quick, settlers in the Panhandle district, as shown by Wills and Deeds in the family of Cornelius Quick (E31).

Outlying scouts having been constantly maintained, the fort was well prepared for a siege, and all settlers for some miles around were behind the barricades of the fort with their families. A fierce battle lasted for a few days, when Capt. Silas Zane shouted that their powder supply was exhausted, with none left for the cannon and but few rounds left for the rifles. He asked for a volunteer to run the gauntlet of enemy fire and fly to the nearby log cabin of Col. Ebenezer and secure a keg of gunpowder. Several men volunteered, though all knew it meant certain death; but Betty Zane said "No! Not a man could be spared. I'll go; I will not be missed." And she went, as fleet as a deer. The Indians were so astounded at this unexplainable daring of a girl that not a shot was fired at her. "Powder! Powder!" she cried as she rushed through the barricade. Col. Ebenezer quickly emptied a keg of it in a tablecloth, tied it securely, and also bound it to her wrist. Throwing it over her shoulder she ran out. Seeing the bag of powder the Indians redoubled their fire, but so fleet of foot was she that amid the shower of bullets that grazed her at every foot of the hundred yards, but one seared her arm. Her heroic act saved Fort Henry and its occupants. An Ohio D. A. R. Chapter is named for her.

Zane Grey, the writer of over 50 novels, born Jan. 31, 1875, who died Oct. 23, 1939, was a great-grandson of one of these Zane brothers. His novel, "Betty Zane" recounts her eventful frontier life and the thrilling story of her "run for powder."

From the records in this book there is no question that the Quick Family did their share in the pioneering of the West. Present day small towns with postoffices bearing the name of QUICK, attest that the founders were among these pioneers.

QUICK CITY. Johnson County, Mo., was founded by Maurice Quick (I-2405), one of the early stockmen and farmers, country storekeeper and postmaster.

QUICK. Frontier County, Neb., was founded by Milan Wesley Quick (I-1161), an early comer, country storekeeper and postmaster.

QUICK. Kanawha County, West Va., was founded by John Wesley Quick (H3110), storekeeper and postmaster.

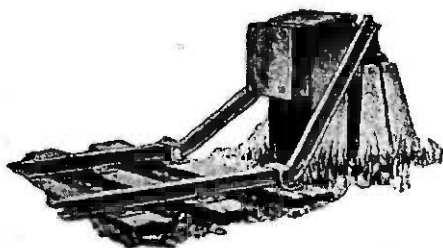

QUICK. Iowa, (10 miles East of Council Bluffs); founder, Wm. S. Quick (G1745), pioneer country storekeeper and postmaster.

QUICKSBURG. Shenandoah County, Va.; founder, William A. Quick, whose wife was a Miss Steigel. (A probable descendent was Miss Nannie Quick who lived 2 miles west of the village). William was storekeeper and postmaster many years ago; but we have been unable to ascertain his parentage.

Have you noticed the "Revolutionary War Roll of Honor" in the front of the book? Some 70 bearing the name of Quick, many from the same households. If only the data of those serving loyally in later wars could be obtained! And on sea we have been nobly represented, too. Among the descendents of Hillegonde Theunisse Quick, B³, who married Jacob Theunissen Dekay, and those of Rebecca Quick, F141, who married Dr. Gershom Craven, we have a goodly number of gallant fighters who made the grades of Commanders, Captains, Commodores, Rear-Admirals, Admirals, and others as Colonels and Majors.

May 4, 1942, a U. S. Destroyer battleship was launched as the "JOHN H. QUICK," in honor of the late Sergeant-Major John H. Quick (I-3370), who was awarded the "Congressional Medal of Honor" for bravery at Guantanamo, Cuba, and the "Distinguished Service Cross" for exceptional service at the battle of Bouresches, France.
